Excerpt from Sir Henry Wotton A Biographical Sketch Dear Christie Will you allow me to dedicate to you the following trifle This sketch was originally written to serve as a Monday Popular Lecture at the College which honours you as one of its most generous benefactors and in which the Christie Library and the Whitworth Hall will soon stand side by side as enduring monuments of your goodwill towards our highest and our widest interests The substance of my brief narrative was put together during a summer holiday at Braemar and had it not been for your never failing aid I should have had to leave Scioppius to take care of himself It may seem presumptuous on my part to wish to connect an attempt which here and there touches the confines of the Later Renaissance period with the name of one who is master of every part of that interesting and complicated chapter of European literature and life About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
