Bilingual Women Shirley Ardener, Pauline Burton, Ketaki Kushari Dyson, 2020-08-19 This book studies women's language use in bilingual or multilingual cultural situations. The authors, social anthropologists, language teachers and interpreters, cover a wide variety of geographical and linguistic situations from the death of Gaelic in the Outer Hebrides to the use of Spanish by Quechua and Aymara women in the Andes. Certain common themes emerge: dominant and subdominant languages, women's use of them, ambivalent attitudes towards women as translators, interpreters and writers in English as a second language, and the critical role of women in the survival or death of minority languages such as Gaelic and Breton.

Duffy's World Faith McCune, 2013-10-01 An Australian shepherd tells the story of his puppyhood and life with his family with a little help from his human companion. Part memoir, part dog owner's manual, this delightful book is narrated primarily from a dog's point of view. As Duffy's owner chimes in with her own perspective, readers will recognize their own joys and challenges that mark the territory of the human-canine relationship. From eating anything and everything to a profound fear of needles and bee stings to being released from dog training school, Duffy's never-ending zest for new experiences is the source of his owner's greatest frustration and most profound life lessons. Duffy's story touched my heart. Julie Hanson, registered veterinary technician.

Tying the Knot with an Amagami Sister 13 Marcey Naito, 2024-05-07 Yae has returned home from the Ichijoji household and life at the Amagami Shrine continues as normal. Now reborn into a new chapter of her life, Yae makes some small changes with big impacts. Then Uryu deepens his relationships with the sisters as they celebrate Halloween and have a private fireworks party, but he also has another prophetic dream. Could this new girl in his dreams shake up his romance with the sisters? Past and present become his guide to a future of love. Pioneer Spirit Mary Ellen Doyle, 2014-07-11

Mother Catherine Spalding 1793-1858 was the cofounder and first leader of one of the most significant American religious communities for women, the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth near Bardstown, Kentucky. Elected at age nineteen to lead the order, Spalding also founded several educational institutions, Louisville's first private hospital, and the first social service agency for children in Kentucky. Pioneer Spirit is the first biography of Catherine Spalding, a woman who made it her life's work to serve the citizens of the Kentucky frontier. Catherine, who lost her mother at a young age and was raised in many different homes before she was ten years old, eventually came to be raised in a colony of Catholic families. These formative years taught her independence, the value of hard work, and an enduring spirit, and the importance of education, all of which would figure prominently in her later career. Spalding became increasingly interested in health care services for orphans and education, and her business skills and strong sense of purpose allowed her to achieve her goals with little interference from outsiders. She showed a natural gift for administration, and the scope and services of the Sisters of Charity expanded under her leadership. In the midst of this ministerial work, however, Spalding always maintained the connection of her ministry to spiritual and communal life, ascribing great importance to all three facets of her calling. Author

Mary Ellen Doyle notes that in Spalding's correspondence with the Sisters she repeatedly emphasized the heart of charity genuine interest in each other and sisterly affection free of personal ambition or jealousy By the time of Catherine Spalding's death the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth extended beyond Nazareth to more than one hundred sisters in sixteen convents Spalding's legacy of service continues today with more than six hundred members worldwide and her story of progressive and compassionate leadership offers unique insights into the growth of a religious order and the struggles of developing America's frontier communities Select Novels, 1845 Sister Augustine, superior of the Sisters of charity at the St. Johannis hospital at Bonn, tr. from [Erinnerungen an Amalie von Lasaulx]. Family Studies Anuja Agrawal, 2024-10-31 Within the social political and economic contexts existing in modern day India family is neither a simple remnant of tradition nor a domain merely representing insulated private lives Rather it is implicated in malleable yet overpowering structures relationships and practices If the family is a crucial site of ideological and imaginative investments playing a critical role in reproducing and defining contemporary selves and societies families are responsive to and constrained by the complex dynamics in which they are enmeshed Family relationships remain fundamental to survival and security even as policy and legislative imperatives as well as reproductive and communication technologies play a crucial role in reshaping them Critically interrogating the extant approaches to and concepts within the study of family Family Studies brings together diverse contributions by scholars from varied backgrounds to focus upon issues central to the conceptualization of family and their implications for Indian society The chapters in this volume make a strong case for why family as an ideological construct and families as a multitude of lived relationships should continue to be subjects of critical social scientific attention and 2 Thomas Wemyss Reid, 1890 *The Life of Madame de Beauharnais de Miramion, 1629-1696 ...
