Six Journeys A Canadian Pattern:

Six Journeys Charles Taylor, 1977 Biographies of six Canadians including James Houston and Emily Carr Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 The Voyageur Modern Canadian Literature 5-Book Bundle Hugh Garner, James Reaney, Robin Skelton, Germaine Warkentin, Scott Symons, 2014-03-14 Voyageur Classics is a series of special versions of Canadian classics with added material and new introductions In this bundle we find five classic works of twentieth century fiction drama and poetry a period when Canada's literary identity was shaped Originally published in 1962 The Silence on the Shore is considered by many critics to be renowned Hugh Garner's best most ambitious novel Originally published in 1967 Combat Journal for Place d'Armes was initially met with shock and anger by most reviewers but has become a literary touchstone The Donnelly's tells the tale of a secret society and a massacre that shocked the Canadian public a story overlooked by the artistic community until Reaney's 1975 play elevated the events to the level of legend In This Poem I Am presents the best of poet Robin Skelton's adventurous poetry And Exploration Literature is a groundbreaking collection of early writing inspired by the opening of a continent an entry point into the beginnings of a literate response to the awe and wonder inspired by an unfolding geography Includes Canadian Exploration Literature Combat Journal for Place d'Armes The Donnelly's In This Poem I Am The Silence on the Shore Locations of the Sacred William Closson James, 2006-01-01 Where do Canadians encounter religious meaning Not where they used to In ten lively and wide ranging essays William Closson James examines various derivations of the sacred in contemporary Canadian culture Most of the essays focus on the religious aspects of modern Canadian English fiction for example in essays on the fiction of Hugh MacLennan Morley Callaghan Margaret Atwood and Joy Kogawa But James also explores other non literary events and activities in which Canadians have found something transcendent or revelatory Each of the chapters in Locations of the Sacred can be read independently as a discrete analysis of its subject Taken as a whole the essays make up a powerful argument for a new way of looking at the religious in contemporary Canada not in the traditional ways of being religious but in activities and locations previously thought to be secular Thus the domains and modes of the religious are expanded not restricted Canadian Culture Elspeth Cameron, 1997 The surest way to the hearts of a Canadian audience is to inform them that their souls are to be identified with rock rapids wilderness and virgin but exploitable forest This critical statement no longer explains Canada's largely urban culture Multiculturalism feminism postmodernism and regionalism these and other vital movements jostle for expression in today's Canada Wherever there's a centre a new margin vies for attention Whenever a new voice catches the country's ear another appears to challenge it However styles form new ways of expression keep shaping themselves Nation without a narrative Yes But in the music literature painting history and popular culture of this country you can always find a soul Canadian Books in Print, 1995 Debrett's Illustrated Guide to the Canadian Establishment Peter Charles Newman, 1983 A portrait in text and photographs of Canada's twenty one dynastic families Includes a directory of the power elites in business the arts politics and the professions with brief biographies and some pedigree charts Evaluating Evidence George Akita, 2008-05-20 Evaluating Evidence is based on the grueling lessons learned by a senior scholar during three decades of tutoring by and collaboration with Japanese historians George Akita persisted in the difficult task of reading documentary sources in Japanese most written in calligraphic style s sho out of the conviction of their centrality to the historian s craft and his commitment to a positivist methodology to research and scholarship He argues forcefully in this volume for an inductive process in which the scholar seeks out facts on a subject and through observation and examination of an extensive body of data is able to discern patterns until it is possible to formulate certain propositions In his introduction Akita relates how and why he decided to adopt a positivist approach and explains what he means by the term as it applies to humanistic studies He enumerates the difficulties linked with reading primary sources in Japanese by looking at a variety of unpublished and published materials and identifying a major problem in reading published primary sources the intervention of editors and compilers He illustrates the pitfalls of such intervention by comparing the recently published seventeen volume diary of Prime Minister Hara Takashi 1856 1921 a photo reproduction of the diary in Hara s own hand and an earlier published version Using documents related to Yamagata Aritomo 1838 1922 a figure of central importance in Japan s post Restoration political history he demonstrates the use of published and transcribed primary sources to sustain question or strengthen some of the themes and approaches adopted by non Japanese scholars working on modern Japanese history He ends his inquiry with two case studies examining closely the methods of the highly acclaimed American historians John W Dower and Herbert P Bix Modern English-Canadian Prose Helen Hoy, 1983 Profiles in Canadian Literature 2 Jeffrey M. Heath, 1980-01-01 Profiles in Canadian Literature 2 is an interesting collection of essays about Canadian writers such as Robertson Davies Al Purdy Margaret Atwood Alice Munro and Rudy Wiebe to name a few As the Quill and Quire writes of this collection It is an extremely useful purchase for all Canadian libraries and students of Canadian literature Marching as to War Pierre Berton, 2001 Canada s twentieth century can be divided roughly into two halves All the wars and all the unnecessary battles in which Canadian youth was squandered belong to the first from the autumn of 1899 to the summer of 1953 From the mid 1950s on Canada has concerned itself not with war but with peace The first war of the century which took Canadian soldiers to South Africa and the last which sent them to Korea bracket the bookends on the shelf of history They have a good deal in common with these two minor conflicts whose chronicles pale when compared to the bloodbaths of the two world wars Canada s wartime days are long past and for many the scars of war have healed Vimy has been manicured clean its pockmarked slopes softened by a green mantle of Canadian pines Dieppe has reverted to a resort town its beaches long since washed free of Canadian blood Nowadays Canadians are proud of their role as Peacekeepers from which they have gained a modicum of international acclaim the nation has always craved with precious little blood wasted in the process In this monumental work Pierre Berton brings Canadian history to life once again relying on a host of sources including newspaper accounts and first hand reports to tell the story of these four wars through the eyes of the privates in the trenches the generals at the front and the politicians and families back home By profiling the interwar years Berton traces how one war led to the next and how the country was changed in the process Canada Writes! Writers' Union of Canada,1977 Lesbian and Gay Liberation in Canada Donald Wilfred McLeod,1996 This authoritative reference guide covers the first twelve years of the organized homophile gay liberation movement in Canada from 1964 when the Association for Social Knowledge ASK Canada s first large scale homophile organization was formed in Vancouver through 1975 the year of the founding of the National Gay Rights Coalition Coalition nationale pour les droits des homosexuels NGRC CNDH the first truly national coalition of Canadian lesbian and gay groups Each entry in the chronology is combined with a brief bibliography of sources Coverage is selective and focusses on self declared lesbians and gay men and their activities in regard to the forging of lesbian and gay communities and liberation in Canada Special attention has been given to important demonstrations political action and lobbying and legal reform In addition artistic and cultural contributions with significant lesbian or gay content are included such as books dramatic productions films etc Three appendices provide supplementary information on lesbian and gay organizations periodicals and bars and clubs A Bibliography of Works on Canadian Foreign Relations ,1976 A Bibliography of Works on Canadian Foreign Relations, 1976-1980 ,1982 Canadian Journal of Political and Social Theory ,1978 Men in the Shadows John Sawatsky,1980 Changing Japanese Identities in Multicultural Canada UVic Centre for Asia-Pacific Initiatives,2003 Homosexuality in Canada ,1979 Crime in a Cold Climate David Skene Melvin,1994
