Pilgrimage to Mecca Lady Evelyn Cobbold, Ahmad S. Turkistani, 2008 As the first British woman convert to Islam on record as having made the pilgrimage to Makkah and the visit to the Prophet s Tomb at Madinah Lady Evelyn Cobbold 1867 1963 cuts a unique figure in the annals of the Muslim Hajj Lady Evelyn was in her mid sixties when she decided to go on the Hajj Daughter of the distinguished Scottish explorer Lord Dunmore granddaughter of the Earl of Leicester and great niece of the notorious romantic Lady Jane Digby el Mezrab the young Evelyn Murray had spent childhood winters in North Africa There she had been imbued with the Muslim way of life becoming as she puts it a little Muslim at heart Before and after the First World War she travelled widely in Egypt Syria and Transjordan While strongly drawn to the Arab world she maintained a conventional place in society at home marrying the wealthy John Cobbold in 1891 and devoting herself to her Suffolk house and Scottish estate her gardens and especially deer stalking in the Highlands of which she was a renowned exponent When her husband by then High Sheriff of Suffolk died in 1929 Lady Evelyn decided to perform the pilgrimage Arriving at Jiddah by steamer from Suez in February 1933 she stayed with the Philbys and entered into the life of Jiddah's foreign community while waiting to obtain permission to perform the Haj. In doing so she had to overcome the considerable suspicion surrounding foreign converts who Muslims felt made the pilgrimage and then wrote about it as a dangerous and sensational adventure. While in Jiddah she received visits from various officials of the royal court notably the King's son the Amir Faysal later King Faysal. PILGRIMAGE TO MECCA is as much an account of an interior journey of faith as a conventional travelogue. It takes the form of a day by day journal interspersed with digressions on the history and merits of Islam. While awaiting permission to go to Makkah she was allowed to travel to Madinah of which she gives an enchanting account. She is the first English writer to give a first hand description of the life of the women's quarters of the households in which she stayed in Madinah Makkah and Muna an account remarkable for its sympathy and vividness. Her book was published in 1934 to favourable reviews but has never until now been reprinted. This new edition with a biographical introduction by William Facey and Lady Evelyn's great great niece Miranda Taylor serves to rescue this unique and intriguing Anglo Muslim from the neglect that has since befallen her even among scholars specialising in women travellers. The Longest Journey Eric Tagliacozzo, 2013-03-15. The pilgrimage to Mecca or Hajj has been a yearly phenomenon of great importance in Muslim lands for well over one thousand years. Each year millions of pilgrims from throughout the Dar al Islam or Islamic world stretching from Morocco east to Indonesia make the trip to Mecca as one of the five pillars of their faith. By the end of the nineteenth century and the beginning of the twentieth fully half of all pilgrims making the journey in any given year could come from Southeast Asia. The Longest Journey spanning eleven modern nation states and seven centuries is the first book to offer a history of the Hajj from one of Islam's largest and most important regions. A Season in Mecca Abdellah Hammoudi, 2006. In 1999 the Moroccan scholar Abdellah Hammoudi trained in Paris and teaching in America decided to go on the pilgrimage to Mecca. He wanted to observe the hajj as an anthropologist but also to experience it as an ordinary pilgrim and to write about it for both Muslims and non Muslims. Here is his intimate intense and detailed account of the hajj a rare and important document by a subtle learned and sympathetic writer. Hammoudi describes not just the adventure the human pressures and the social tumult everything from the early preparations to the last climactic scenes in the holy shrines of Medina and Mecca but also the intricate politics and amazing complexity of the entire pilgrimage experience. He pays special heed to the effects of Saudi bureaucratic control over the hajj to the ways that faith itself becomes a lucrative source of commerce for the Arabian kingdom and to the Wahhabi inflections of the basic Muslim message. Here too is a poignant discussion of the inner voyage that pilgrimage can mean to those who embark on it the transformed sense of daily life of worship and of political engagement. Hammoudi acknowledges that he was spurred to reconsider his own ideas about faith gesture community and nationality in unanticipated ways. This is a remarkable work of literature about both the outer forms and the inner meanings of Islam today. The Hadj Michael Wolfe, 1994. The Sacred Journey Ahmad Kamal, 2000-07-19 book description First
