The Creative Murders:

The Art of Life and Death Andrew Irving, 2017-09-15 The Art of Life and Death explores how the world appears to people who have an acute perspective on it those who are close to death Based on extensive ethnographic research Andrew Irving brings to life the lived experiences imaginative lifeworlds and existential concerns of persons confronting their own mortality and non being Encompassing twenty years of working alongside persons living with HIV AIDS in New York Irving documents the radical but often unspoken and unvoiced transformations in perception knowledge and understanding that people experience in the face of death By bringing an experience near ethnographic focus to the streams of inner dialogue imagination and aesthetic expression that are central to the experience of illness and everyday life this monograph offers a theoretical ethnographic and methodological contribution to the anthropology of time finitude and the human condition With relevance well beyond the disciplinary boundaries of anthropology this book ultimately highlights the challenge of capturing the inner experience of human suffering and hope that affect us all of the trauma of the threat of death and the surprise of continued life The art of life and death is unlike anything I have ever read in its combination of theoretical ambition and methodological innovation The book is the fruit of Irving s close collaboration with a remarkable group of men and women diagnosed with AIDS at a time when there was little hope of surviving the disease With the help of their words and crucially their art Irving illuminates the complex inner life world created by the trauma of threatened death and the surprise of continued life Inner experience and the challenge of capturing it lie at the heart of this book Danilyn Rutherford author of Laughing at Leviathan The art of life and death is a monumental anthropological achievement Fusing long term fieldwork deeply sensitive observation and a refined sense the phenomenology of our deep existential fears of illness of death and the emotional quandaries of having survived a confrontation with mortality Andrew Irving demonstrates how imaginative ethnography can reveal to us the deep contours of human being The art of life and death is filled with gripping narratives not only of pain confusion but also of courage and resilience It is a theoretically informed text that will long remain open to the world Paul Stoller author of Yaya s story The art of life and death is a brilliantly engaging piece of work that invites us to rethink life itself and introduces new ways of carrying out anthropological research Through a compelling interweaving of ethnography and theory Irving takes us close to lives that have been lived under conditions of existential uncertainty and recovery This book goes beyond conventional anthropology to offer a thoroughly inspiring account from which we learn not only about what it means to live near death but how art and the senses are implicated in life It will endure as an outstanding example of how do anthropology at its best Sarah Pink coauthor of Uncertainty and possibility In this imaginatively conceived book Andrew Irving asks compelling and daring questions on how to think of such categories as experience inner life or subjectivity in the face of imminent death He follows up with a very careful and caring ethnography of how art and life flow into each other Irving achieves perfect pitch in his writing A splendid achievement Veena Das author of Affliction Of the utmost importance a very worthwhile introduction to any medical anthropologist because it includes detailed ethnographic descriptions a variety of ethnographic methods and a range of key anthropological themes including a focus on embodied experiences social injustice and how individuals deal with death The narrative style of the book makes it easy to read and relate to This is a great feat given the complex and troubling themes discussed which lead one to question their very perception of life itself Journal of the Anthropological Society of Oxford Of interest to anyone looking to explore people's dynamic perceptive and reflective outlook on the world whether looking to the future contemplating death or simply being alive No curious anthropology student or for that matter person would be left un inspired or non transformed by this text and I implore as wide a readership as possible Anthropology Aging An exceptional achievement that gets under your skin from beginning to end Outstanding interweaving of theoretical critique and aspiration collaborative ethnography and methodological experimentation and innovation Inspiring essential reading for anyone interested in new ethnographic methods to more deeply access the complex inner dimensions of human experience American Ethnologist An excellent thought provoking book Brilliantly succeeding in drawing both a conceptual and empirical portrait of the patterns in which HIV as a socio historically traceable illness tends to articulate the life death dialectical relation on the discovery threshold of embodied mortality Groundbreaking Mortality This beautifully written and constructed book weaves together sophisticated social theory philosophy art work and vivid biographical narratives to offer insights into how HIV AIDS patients have learned to live a meaningful existence in the pre and post antiretroviral eras while negotiating a terminal illness Basing his book on 20 years of work with adults living with HIV AIDS in New York visual anthropologist Irving has carried out a compelling anthropological study of the complex inner world of those who struggle cope fight and ultimately come to terms with their own impending deaths The author draws on philosophical writings and social theories to contextualize his results but is at his best when allowing his subjects to speak for themselves The evocative words of subjects like artist Albert Velasco provide fascinating insights into the ways that dying persons with HIV AIDS grapple with the mundane like keeping medical appointments as well as the profound reckoning with their own mortality and purpose An engaging read that will enrich upper level and graduate collections on death and dying ethnographic methods and HIV AIDS Highly recommended Choice

Art, Crime and Madness Shlomo Giora Shoham, 2003-01-01 Art Crime and Madness explores the relationship between creative innovation deviance and morbidity To innovate one has to be able to view the medium and the object of creativity in a different hitherto unexplored manner The essence of art is creative innovation coupled with an ability in varying degrees to transcend the boundaries of consciousness But this ability is also the prerogative of the mentally deranged Likewise the criminal and the deviant are more likely to transcend normative barriers while creating hence the wide range of criminal and deviant behaviour in society Although the inverse hypothesis does not hold the mere existence of deviance or morbidity does not predispose the individual to creativity nevertheless criminal and mad behaviour are often very innovative This thesis is illustrated by historical case histories of creative deviance and genius madness and contemporary observations The painter Michelangelo Merisi Caravaggio killed a man while still a teenager and a second victim during a ball game In his lifetime he was considered degenerate but today he is considered the greatest painter of the Italian Settecento and his portrait adorns the Hundred Thousand Lira note Jean Genet the homosexual thief was born out of wedlock and as a teenager he transgressed almost all the paragraphs of the French criminal code But he became a famous French playwright the mouthpiece for criminals and deviants His plays built up a philosophical apology for the raison d etre of the criminal group HCI International 2020 - Late Breaking Papers: User Experience Design and Case Studies Constantine Stephanidis,Aaron Marcus,Elizabeth Rosenzweig,Pei-Luen Patrick Rau,Abbas Moallem,Matthias Rauterberg,2020-10-02 This book constitutes late breaking papers from the 22nd International Conference on Human Computer Interaction HCII 2020 which was held in July 2020 The conference was planned to take place in Copenhagen Denmark but had to change to a virtual conference mode due to the COVID 19 pandemic From a total of 6326 submissions a total of 1439 papers and 238 posters have been accepted for publication in the HCII 2020 proceedings before the conference took place In addition a total of 333 papers and 144 posters are included in the volumes of the proceedings published after the conference as Late Breaking Work papers and posters These contributions address the latest research and development efforts in the field and highlight the human aspects of design and use of computing systems The 54 late breaking papers presented in this volume were organized in two topical sections named User Experience Design and Evaluation Methods and Tools Design Case Studies User Experience Case Studies English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art ,1893 The Year's art, compiled by M.B.
