Early Modern Japanese Literature Haruo Shirane, 2008 This abridged edition of Haruo Shirane's popular anthology Early Modern Japanese Literature retains the essential texts that have made the original volume such a valuable resource. The book introduces English speaking readers to prose fiction genres including dangibon kibyoshi satiric picture books, sharebon books of wit and fashion, yomihon kokkeibon books of humor, gokan bound books, and ninjobon books of romance and sentiment. It also features poetic genres such as waka haiku senryu and kyōka and plays ranging from Chikamatsu's puppet plays to nineteenth century kabuki. Readers will continue to benefit from the anthology's selection of significant essays, treatises, literary criticism, folk stories, and other noncanonical works, as well as the numerous prints that accompanied these works. They will also find Shirane's introductions and critical commentary, which guide the reader through the allusive and often elliptical nature of these incredible selections. World Breakers Tony Daniel, Christopher Ruocchio, 2021-08-03

Formed from cold steel and superpowered computing brains these gigantic tanks with the firepower of an entire army have been the decisive factors in interplanetary battle. But are humans worthy of the extraordinary instruments of war that they have created? Are the Worldbreakers the greatest protector of human liberty or its worst threat? For while these Worldbreakers very definitely have minds of their own the question remains within their iron and superluminal quantum breasts: does there lie a faithful heart? Stories of world breakers and world makers in the great tradition of Keith Laumer's Bolos from David Weber, Larry Correia, Wen Spencer, and more. At the publisher's request this title is sold without Digital Rights Management (DRM). About Star Destroyers edited by Tony Daniel and Christopher Ruocchio, spectacular space battles and alien contacts, themes of military ethics, the uses of artificial intelligence, and the limits of the capacity of the human mind; it is the human interactions and decisions that ultimately drive the stories. Will appeal to fans of military and hard science fiction and any readers fascinated by the possibilities of space travel. Booklist: stories of giant spaceships at war, at peace, and in the often gray areas between. A worthy addition to a long tradition of ship-based fiction and its authors portray captains, arcane astrogators, and civilian child passengers with equal depth. It's recommended for fans of military SF and space adventure. Publishers Weekly: you'd probably expect some tight action-filled space opera stories of giant space battles and there's some of that. But there are also espionage stories, rescue missions, political conflicts, alternate histories, even a few humorous tales. Each author took the premise in a different direction. If I had to identify one common feature to all the stories it would be that they're all fun. Like it says big ships blowing things up. What's not to like? Analog Cultural Journeys Pamela S. Gates, Dianne L. Hall, Mark, 2010-08-16 As multicultural education is becoming integral to the core curriculum, teachers often implement this aspect into their courses through literature. However, standards and criteria to teach and promote active discussion about this literature are sparse. Cultural Journeys introduces pre-service and experienced teachers to the use of literature to promote active discussions that lead students to think about racial diversity. More than just an annotated list of books for children, Pamela S. Gates and Dianne L. Hall Mark provide systematic guidelines that teachers can use throughout their careers to evaluate multicultural literature for students in grades K-8. At the same time, the text leads the reader to a deeper understanding of how to use multicultural literature throughout the entire curriculum and not just during specially designated months or time periods. With the example unit plans and extensive annotated bibliography, this book is a valuable resource that pre-service teachers will utilize when they begin teaching and in-service teachers will reference repeatedly during their planning periods.

Female Genital Mutilation and Social Media Christina Julios, 2018-09-26 This book explores the phenomenon of anti-female genital mutilation (FGM) social media activism. Against a backdrop of over 200 million girls and women worldwide affected by FGM, this volume examines key global online campaigns to end the practice involving leading virtual platforms such as Twitter, Facebook, and YouTube. Drawing from twenty-one fieldwork interviews with anti-FGM activists, frontline practitioners, and survivors, the volume investigates opportunities and challenges inherent to cyberspace. These include online FGM bans as well as practices such as cyber misogyny and clicktivism. Global campaigns featured include the UN's International Day of Zero Tolerance for FGM, the WHO's Sexual and Reproductive Health Programme, The Girl Generation, The Guardian's End FGM Global Media Campaign, and the Massai Cricket Warriors. Furthermore, ten case studies document prominent anti-FGM campaigners. Firstly, five African-led narratives from celebrated activists Efua Dorkenoo OBE, Waris Dirie, Ayaan Hirsi Ali, Jaha Dukureh, and Leyla Hussein. Second, five accounts from FGM survivors interviewed for the book Mama Sylla. Masooma Ranalvi Farzana, Doctor Fatou Baldeh, and Mariya Taher. By exploring anti-FGM online activism, this book fills a gap in the literature which has largely overlooked FGM's presence in cyberspace as a virtual social movement. Female Genital Mutilation and Social Media will be of interest to activists, survivors, frontline professionals, students, academics, and the wider public.

Story Zone, 1997 Traces of Dreams Haruo Shirane, 1998 Basho (1644-94) is perhaps the best known Japanese poet in both Japan and the West, and this book establishes the ground for badly needed critical discussion of this critical figure by placing the works of Basho and his disciples in the context of broader social change.

Cape Breton in the Long Twentieth Century Lachlan MacKinnon, Andrew Parnaby, 2024-03-26 The emergence, dominance, and alarmingly rapid retreat of modernist industrial capitalism on Cape Breton Island during the long twentieth century offers a particularly captivating window on the lasting and varied effects of deindustrialization. Now at the tail end of the industrial moment in North American history, the story of Cape Breton Island presents an opportunity to reflect on how industrialization and deindustrialization have shaped human experiences. Covering the period between 1860 and the early 2000s, this volume looks at trade unionism, state, and cultural responses to deindustrialization including the more recent pivot towards the tourist industry and the lived experiences of Indigenous and Black people. Rather than focusing on the separate or distinct nature of Cape Breton contributors place the island within broad transnational networks such as the financial world of the Anglo Atlantic the Celtic music revival the Black diaspora Canadian development programs and more. In capturing the vital elements of a region on the rural resource frontier that was battered by deindustrialization the histories included here show how the interplay of the state cultures and transnational connections shaped how people navigated these heavy pressures both individually and collectively Guide to Hastings and vicinity Ward, Lock and co, ltd,1896
