The Corinthian:

The Corinthian Correspondence Reimund Bieringer,1996      The Corinthian Correspondence Frank W. Hughes, Robert Jewett, 2021-10-19 In The Corinthian Correspondence Frank W Hughes and Robert Jewett argue that there were eight original letters by the Apostle Paul to the church in Corinth. In the first part of the book they use literary and redaction criticism to show the reasons for the partition theory of 1 and 2 Corinthians. Analyzing each of the eight letters and letter fragments using rhetorical criticism they show how the original Corinthian letters were edited and reshaped into 1 and 2 Corinthians in the New Testament. After reflections on the rhetoric of these letters and the historical meaning of the reshaping of the images of Paul a final chapter traces the consequences of the reshaping of the Corinthian correspondence and the adoption of the bound book codex instead of the original papyrus scrolls. Several figures help the reader understand the redactional process and a new translation of the eight reconstructed Corinthian letters is provided      Wisdom According to Paul in Relation to the Corinthian Problems Richard C. Rojas, 2024-09-30 The problems of boasting, division and human wisdom are apparent in 1 Corinthians 1-4. Addressing their interrelated nature Dr Richard Rojas argues they are rooted in a false understanding of wisdom. He skilfully explores how Paul's response to the issues is found in his wisdom teaching, especially the meaning and significance of Christ the wisdom of God. In this detailed study Dr Rojas presents a sociological and rhetorical analysis of 1 Corinthians 1-4 that brings a fresh perspective on Paul's response to church tension with important truths for churches today.
