The Polenski Project Impeding Yesterdays Future:

The Polenski Project J. Andrew Killion, 2004-07-01 Has it ever occurred to you that the Loch Ness Monster Bigfoot or perhaps even those mysterious Unidentified Flying Objects UFO s might really do exist The government is quick to say NO They would have us believe that those making the reports are simply a few sick individuals seeking to gain publicity Yet we are continually inundated with reported sightings from all around the world Can all of these reports be the utterance of a few sick minds The Polenski Project gives us an imaginary and controversial glimpse into government corruption and how easily the public can be misled This shocking story chronicles the lives of a family that lived in Albuquerque New Mexico back in the late 1940 s Not only were they the victims of a conspiracy and governmental cover up they would also witness events places and technology that could best be described as simply euphoric in every conceivable way It all started because Joseph Smith did not want to believe his brother was guilty of murdering his girlfriend so he agreed to help him escape from prison What he and his family would encounter before during and after his brother s incarceration bordered on disbelief and yet it did happen But even more astounding was the incredible amount of funding and other resources used by a man named Edwin Polenski to conceal this earth shattering event from the news media If the totality of these events were made public it would certainly impact history as we know it and conceivably shock or mesmerize the entire world
