

THE CORDED SHELL

---

Reflections on Musical Expression

By Peter Kirz

What Passion cannot MUSIC raise and quell!
When Jahel struck the corded Shell,
His list'ning Brethren stood around
And wond'ring on their Faces fell
To worship that Celestial Sound.
Less than a God they thought there cou'd not dwell
Within the hollow of that Shell
That spoke so sweetly and so well.
What Passion cannot MUSIC raise and quell!

Contemplating music Ruth Katz, 1989 Of Essence and Context Rūta Stanevičiūtė, Nick Zangwill, Rima Povilionienė, 2019-06-01 This book provides a new approach to the intersections between music and philosophy It features articles that rethink the concepts of musical work and performance from ontological and epistemological perspectives and discuss issues of performing practices that involve the performer's and listener's perceptions In philosophy the notion of essence has enjoyed a renaissance However in the humanities in general it is still viewed with suspicion This collection examines the ideas of essence and context as they apply to music A common concern when thinking of music in terms of essence is the plurality of music There is also the worry that thinking in terms of essence might be an overly conservative way of imposing fixity on something that evolves Some contend that we must take into account the varying historical and cultural contexts of music and that the idea of an essence of music is therefore a fantasy This book puts forward an innovative approach that effectively addresses these concerns It shows that it is in fact possible to find commonalities among the many kinds of music The coverage combines philosophical and musicological approaches with bioethics biology linguistics communication theory phenomenology and cognitive science The respective chapters written by leading musicologists and philosophers reconsider the fundamental essentialist and contextualist approaches to music creation and experience in light of twenty first century paradigm shifts in music philosophy

Hatten, 2018-09-06 In his third volume on musical expressive meaning Robert S Hatten examines virtual agency in music from the perspectives of movement gesture embodiment topics tropes emotion narrativity and performance Distinguished from the actual agency of composers and performers whose intentional actions either create music as notated or manifest music as significant sound virtual agency is inferred from the implied actions of those sounds as they move and reveal tendencies within music stylistic contexts From our most basic attributions of sources for perceived energies in music to the highest realm of our engagement with musical subjectivity Hatten explains how virtual agents arose as distinct from actual ones how unspecified actants can take on characteristics of virtual human agents and how virtual agents assume various actorial roles Along the way Hatten demonstrates some of the musical means by which composers and performers from different historical eras have staged and projected various levels of virtual agency engaging listeners imaginatively and interactively within the expressive realms of their virtual and fictional musical worlds decadent art broadly enough to encompass literature music and the visual arts and precisely enough to examine individual works in detail Reed focuses on the essential characteristics of this style and distinguishes it from non esthetic categories of decadent artists and decadent themes Like the natural sciences and psychology the arts in the late nineteenth century reflect an interest in the process of atomization Literature and the other arts mirror this interest by developing or rather elaborating existing forms to the point of what appears to be dissolution Instead of these forms dissolving however they require their audience s participation and thus involve a new order Reed argues that this process of reordering characterizes decadent style which depends upon sensory provocation resolvable only through negation and is therefore bounded by philosophical and emotional assumptions of inevitable frustration Drawing upon the literature music and visual arts of England and Europe at the end of the nineteenth century Reed provides a widely ranging and authoritative overview of decadent style which relates such artists as Huysmans Wilde D Annunzio Moreau Bresdin Klimt Klinger Wagner and Strauss He related decadent style to Pre Raphaelite and Naturalist preoccupation with detail and to aesthetic and Symbolist fascination with sensibility and idealism Ultimately Reed argues decadent style is a late stage of Romanticism overshadowed by Symbolism but anticipating in its attempt to yoke incompatibilities and to engender a new cerebral form some of the main traits of Modernism
