Conference,2008 Essays from the EAAS Conference in Nicosia Cyprus 2006    Reconciliation and Religio-political Non-conformism in Zimbabwe Joram Tarusarira,2016-05-20 Religio political organisations in Zimbabwe play an important role in advocating democratisation and reconciliation against acquiescent silenced or co opted mainstream churches Reconciliation and Religio political Non conformism in Zimbabwe analyses activities of religious organisations that deviate from the position of mainline churches and the political elites with regard to religious participation in political matters against a background of political conflict and violence Drawing on detailed case studies of the Zimbabwe Christian Alliance ZCA Churches in Manicaland CiM and Grace to Heal GtH this book provocatively argues that in the face of an unsatisfactory religious and political culture religio political non conformists emerge seeking to introduce a new ethos even in the face of negative sanctions from dominant religious and political systems    The Psychology of Migration Adam Anczyk, Halina Grzymała-Moszczyńska,2021-05-31 This book forms an introduction to the emerging discipline of psychology of migration which is an interdisciplinary field of reflection and research joining together diverse subfields of psychology with anthropological sociological demographic and historical inquiry on migration processes The introductory chapter marks the borders of this borderline discipline defines important notions and the subject of inquiry and presents its main research themes together with prospective paths for the discipline's development The second chapter presents research methods applied in psychology of migration Acculturation processes and their psychological analysis as well an impact on the mental health of migrants are the main topics of interest in the third chapter The last chapter covers issues of mutual relations between religion and migration Conclusive remarks on contemporary psychology of migration facing cultural and religious diversity in COVID 19 pandemic times are outlined pointing at challenges the discipline will surely meet in the future

Resisting Our Culture of Conformity Wayne Burns,2006-04-07 This is an account of a boy and later a man who refuses to conform to the demands of our conformist culture As a boy in the small towns in which he grew up his refusal to conform caused him to be branded a social misfit likely to end up in the state penitentiary Nevertheless he refused to sacrifice his individual self to the demands of cultural conformity Nor could he once he became a professor see why others should sacrifice their individual selves So he found ways to resist the cultural establishment's deadly control revolutionary ways that in his teaching and writing he tried to make available to others Even more interesting however is Burns account of his own personal war with his culture For in trying to justify his never ending war he lays bare his deepest emotional experiences from the time when as a fourteen year old he finds sexual fulfillment with a twelve year old girl to the time when some forty years and four divorces later he finds his present wife who joins him in his resistance to our conformist culture A

Comparative Study of Conformism in Japan and the United States Yoshinori Yoshida,1976 Democracy and Authority in Korea Geir Helgesen,2014-06-03 This controversial new study breaks with the tradition of basing political studies on analyses of institutions and political personalities by likening the Republic of Korea to a laboratory for the clash of political cultures In the late 1940s the Americans embarked upon a democratization programme designed to create a Western bulwark against the spread of communism in East Asia The intervening years have seen the advent and demise of military rule with South Korea now having a democratically elected government Although the US strategy thus seems successful the political crises of 1995 in fact indicate that many obstacles remain here to the adoption of Western style democracy This study argues that socialization in general and political socialization in particular are key factors in any analysis of democracy be it in Korea or elsewhere Accordingly the work draws on moral education textbooks together with surveys and interviews among members of the urban intellectual elite In this manner the psychological roots of power and authority key concepts to an understanding of good government are explored On The Cultural Cringe A.A.

Phillips,2016-03-22 The Australian writer critic and teacher A A Phillips coined the term the cultural cringe in 1950 to describe an Australian tendency to identify our literature and art as inferior to work produced overseas particularly in Britain and the United States The term has resonated in debates about Australian culture society and identity ever since Although Phillips famous essay on the cringe was first published more than fifty years ago it remains a powerful reference point in discussions of the national culture It is reprinted here with two of his other essays on Australian culture and with additional biographical and critical material including an essay by Ivor Indyk The (Dis)Order of U.S. Schooling Eric

Ferris,2023-06-01 This book critically interrogates the function of schooling in the United States of America using the writings of sociologist Zygmunt Bauman Asking whether the function is to produce citizens workers a combination of the two or something altogether different it argues that the designs of schooling are part of a carefully crafted ordering illustrated via an analysis of the ways in which schooling introduces students to various forms of coercion and seduction that socialize students in particular ways ways that support an order By engaging with the prolific and insightful works of one of the most prominent social thinkers of the 21st century this book considers schooling and its contributions to order Be they solid or liquid modern ordering mechanisms ordering through repression and seduction or supporting ordering through the creation of boundaries separating an orderly inside from its disorderly outside schools imperfectly support the construction of order and in doing so privilege some representations and individuals over others To order is to harness ambivalence and steer it in directions that privilege the in group at the expense of the out group and schools from the curriculum they teach to the values and ideas they promote are desirable captive marketplaces instrumental in steering this ambivalence The author ultimately suggests that the function of schools whether recognized or not are not so much to educate students to be free thinkers but rather to be orderly cogs in a particular functional social machine As such the book will be of interest to faculty scholars and postgraduate level students with interests in the sociology of education schooling sociology and social theory

Whales and Dolphins Philippa Brakes,Mark Peter Simmonds,2013-09-13 Whales and dolphins are icons for the conservation movement They are the most conspicuous ambassadors for entire marine ecosystems and possibly even for the biosphere as a whole Concurrent with our realisation of impending threats to their environment is a growing scientific understanding of the social and cognitive complexity of many of these species This book brings together experts in the relevant diverse fields of cetacean research to provide authoritative descriptions of our current knowledge of the complex behaviour and social organization of whales and dolphins The authors consider this new information in the context of how different human cultures from around the world view cetaceans and their protection including attitudes to whaling They show how new information on issues such as cetacean intelligence culture and the ability to suffer warrants a significant shift in global perceptions of this group of animals and how these changes might be facilitated to improve conservation and welfare approaches Culture, Tribal History, and Freedom Movement P. K. Mishra,1989 Pious and Secular America Reinhold Niebuhr,2001-08-31 This book by Reinhold Niebuhr is a collection of religious essays composed in the mid 20th century focusing on the phenomenon of the United States growing both more secular and more religious at the same time
