The Plays Of Edward Bond A Study A Methuen Theatrefile:

The Plays of Edward Bond Tony Coulthard, 1977 The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library, 1983 New British Drama in Performance on the London Stage, 1970 to 1985 Richard Allen Cave, 1987 Monographic Series Library of Congress, Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1980

British Literary Bibliography, 1970-1979 Trevor Howard Howard-Hill, 1992 British Literary Bibliography 1970-1979 is a ten year supplement to the six volumes already published in the prestigious series Index to British Literary Bibliography and is fully indexed for consistency with earlier volumes. The series provides a comprehensive record of the writings that describe and study the history of the printed book in Britain and works of bibliography and textual criticism from the earliest times. The period covered by the present volume was bibliographically very active, witnessing a great renewal of interest in the history of the book. The volume has seven main sections: General Bibliographies of and Guides to British Literature, Bibliography and Textual Criticism, General and Period Bibliography, Regional Bibliography, Book Production and Distribution, Forms, Genres and Subjects, and Authors. Complete information about each book or journal article is provided in standard form and in many instances objective annotations are given, affording additional access to the items through a very detailed index.

Dreams and Deconstructions Sandy Craig, 1980 Dreams and Deconstructions is an illustrated account of the development of alternative theatre in Britain over the past 20 years or so. It assesses the achievements of political theatre, the impact of feminism, the expansion of community and ethnic theatre, and the growth of the important but often neglected areas of theatre in education and children's theatre. The book also surveys the work of the performance art groups and the actor-based workshops, looks at lunch time theatre, the new fringe venues and the regional reps, and considers the benefits and constraints of public patronage. Significantly, it turns the spotlight on that new generation of angry young playwrights to emerge after the watershed year of 1968. Writers such as Howard Brenton, David Hare, Snoo Wilson and David Edgar whose work is central to any discussion of alternative theatre. Alternate theatre has redefined the relationship between theatre and society and has been openly politically critical of the social democratic process. It has challenged the traditional ideologies of the established commercial and subsidized theatres and has attempted to find different audiences that and new forms of dramatic expressions. Dreams and Deconstruction is the first book to seek to understand and analyse that process of redefinition, which has been arguably the more exciting development in British theatre in recent years. who want to know more about Edward Bond's recurrent concerns as a playwright In attempting to counter much of the received critical opinion about Bond's work Tony Coulthard sets out to show how Bond's attitudes to religion and superstition, nature and politics, the family and the individual are given brilliant theatrical form in the plays. There are two chapters on the plays in performance dealing with language and stagecraft and on the often stormy history of Bond's relationship with the British Theatre. This makes for a fresh and unusual approach to a playwright's work and one particularly situated to the closely related rational theatre of Edward Bond. This is a must read for scholars and researchers of theatre and performance studies and British theatre. Plays by Women Michelene Wandor, Mary Remnant, 1982 ONE Archives has volume 6
