Witnessing Lynching Anne P. Rice, 2003 Their words provide today's reader with a chance to witness lynching and better understand the current state of race relations in America BOOK JACKET Visualizing the Holocaust David Bathrick, Brad Prager, Michael David Richardson, 2008 Visual representations are an essential but highly contested means of understanding and remembering the Holocaust Photographs taken in the camps in early 1945 provided proof of and visceral access to the atrocities Later visual representations such as films paintings and art installations attempted to represent this extreme trauma While photographs from the camps and later aesthetic reconstructions differ in origin they share goals and have raised similar concerns the former are questioned not as to veracity but due to their potential inadequacy in portraying the magnitude of events the latter are criticized on the grounds that the mediation they entail is unacceptable Some have even questioned any attempt to represent the Holocaust as inappropriate and dangerous to historical understanding This book explores the taboos that structure the production and reception of Holocaust images and the possibilities that result from the transgression of those taboos Essays consider the uses of various visual media aesthetic styles and genres in representations of the Holocaust the uses of perpetrator photography the role of trauma in memory aesthetic problems of mimesis and memory in the work of Lanzmann Celan and others and questions about mass cultural representations of the Holocaust David Bathrick is Emeritus Professor of German at Cornell University Brad Prager is Associate Professor of German at the University of Missouri and Michael D Richardson is Associate Professor of German at Ithaca College The Properties of

Violence Sandy Alexandre, 2012-11-09 The Properties of Violence focuses on two connected issues representations of lynching in late nineteenth and twentieth century American photographs poetry and fiction and the effects of those representations Alexandre compellingly shows how putting representations of lynching in dialogue with the history of lynching uncovers the profound investment of African American literature as an enterprise that continually seeks to create conceptual spaces for the disenfranchised culture it represents in matters of property and territory Through studies ranging from lynching photographs to Toni Morrison s Pulitzer Prize winning novel Beloved the book demonstrates how representations of lynching demand that we engage and discuss various forms of possession and dispossession The multiple meanings of the word representation are familiar to literary critics but Alexandre s book insists that its other key term effects also needs to be understood in both of its primary senses On the one hand it indicates the social and cultural repercussions of how lynching was portrayed namely what effects its representations had On the other hand the word signals too the possessions or what we might call the personal effects conjured up by these representations These possessions were not only material as for example property in land or the things one owned The effects of representation also included diverse less tangible but no less real possessions shared by individuals and groups the aura of a lynching site the ideological construction of white womanhood or the seemingly default capacity of lynching iconography to encapsulate the history of ostensibly all forms of violence against black people

Myth, Language and Tradition Wit Píetrzak, 2011-05-25 How can poetry embrace morality through focusing on metaphrasts What is the relation between an allumette and the alpha rhythm How come that money has turned into a metonym of goodness And above all is it still possible to think of the human subject as a viable category in late modernity These are some of the questions that J H Prynne s poetry deals with Levity of Design voices a critique of the present day society very much from within and demonstrates how Prynne has contrived to single handedly overcome the impasse created by the legacy of poststructuralism In a milieu of avant garde linguistic experiment developed from modernist techniques of Pound and Olson but also the early Eliot as well as Velimir Khlebnikov and against the background of the writings of Heidegger and Adorno these poems are demonstrated to seek a language in which the notion of man can be restituted Stevens and the Interpersonal Mark Halliday,2014-07-14 With Wallace Stevens emerging as a father figure for American poetry of the late twentieth century Mark Halliday argues that it is time for this poet of ideas to undergo an ethical critique In this bold accessible reconsideration of Stevens work he insists on the importance of interpersonal relations in any account of human life in the modern world Although Stevens outwardly denies aspects of life that center on such relations as those between friends lovers family members and political constituents Halliday uncovers in his poetry an anxious awareness of the importance of these relations Here we see the difficulties Stevens made for himself in wanting to offer a thoroughly satisfying version of secular spiritual health in the modern world without facing up to the moral and psychological implications of his own interpersonal needs problems and responsibilities The final chapter reveals however an unusually encouraging avuncular attitude toward the reader of the poetry which may be felt to redeem Stevens from the alienation observed earlier Halliday develops his views by way of comparisons between Stevens and other poets especially Thomas Hardy Emily Dickinson Robert Frost and John Ashbery Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Return Engagements Viet Lê,2021-04-12 In Return Engagements artist and critic Vi t L examines contemporary art in Cambodia and Vi t Nam to rethink the entwinement of militarization trauma diaspora and modernity in Southeast Asian art Highlighting artists tied to Phnom Penh and S i G n and drawing on a range of visual art as well as documentary and experimental films L points out that artists of Southeast Asian descent are often expected to address the twin traumas of armed conflict and modernization and shows how desirable art on these themes is on international art markets As the global art market fetishizes trauma and violence artists strategically align their work with those tropes in ways that L suggests allow them to reinvent such aesthetics and discursive spaces By returning to and refashioning these themes artists such as Tiffany Chung Rithy Panh and Sopheap Pich challenge categorizations of diasporic and local by situating themselves as insiders and outsiders relative to Cambodia and Vi t Nam By doing so they disrupt dominant understandings of place time and belonging in contemporary art
