

Of Mice and Men* Theme Topics - Found Poem Exercise

Due : By the end of the period on Friday, 10/3/14

Total Points: 25

Steinbeck uses such beautiful diction (word choice) in his novel Of Mice and Men. Your task is to create a Found poem of at least 12 lines for a theme topic you have identified in Of Mice and Men.

A Found poem takes existing text, reorders it, and then presents them as a poem. Found poetry is the literary equivalent of a collage. The writer of the found poem does not add any of his/her own new words, but instead may omit words or phrases from the lines of the text and add/alter punctuation. The author decides what the form of the poem should be in regards to line breaks and stanzas. It is not enough, in other words, to find an interesting paragraph, add some line breaks and call it a found poem. The found poem should have a meaning and should makes the reader think, laugh, second-guess, wonder, reflect, and/or otherwise feel something.

 This is an example of a found poem from Of Mice and Men. Though it is not based on any of the themes I am asking of you, this poem shows how to integrate found phrases into your own poetry.

Crooks

The negro stable buck,
Bent to the left by his crooked spine,
And nearly crazy with loneliness.
Just like a broken harness
In the process of being mended.

A crippled cripple –
Broken,
Yet glittered with intensity and
Pain-tightened lips.

S'pose you couldn't go
Into the bunk house
And play rummy
Cause you was black?
How'd you like that?
How'd you like that?
Just cause you was black?

The Poem As Process

The Poem As Process:

The Poem as Process David Swanger, 1974 Poetic Process W. G. Kudsus, 1995-01-01 Georg Trakl 1887 1914 has emerged as one of the most influential poets of the century Kudsus both explores and participates in the relentless process of Trakl's writing Presumptions of objectivity authority dialogue and coherence are questioned in a discourse that also involves Martin Heidegger's philosophical reflections on Trakl C G Jung's self-analytical reading of James Joyce's Ulysses and the Bluebeard tale as related by Charles Perrault Faithful to its title Poetic Process activates key issues of twentieth century poetry terror pain madness imagination unbound through a dynamically self-reflective inquiry Under the impact of the poetic text this investigation engages in a continuous refinement and transformation of its own critical stance Poetic Process draws on the ability of poetry to explore uncharted realms of the human condition The result is a contribution to the knowledge of poetic language and effects Benjamin, Adorno, and the Experience of Literature Corey McCall, Nathan Ross, 2018-06-27 This collection features original essays that examine Walter Benjamin's and Theodor Adorno's essays and correspondence on literature Taken together the essays present the view that these two monumental figures of 20th century philosophy were not simply philosophers who wrote about literature but that they developed their philosophies in and through their encounters with literature Benjamin Adorno and the Experience of Literature is divided into three thematic sections The first section contains essays that directly demonstrate the ways in which literature enriched the thinking of Benjamin and Adorno It explores themes that are recognized to be central to their thinking mimesis the critique of historical progress and the loss and recovery of experience through their readings of literary authors such as Baudelaire Beckett and Proust The second section continues the trajectory of the first by bringing together four essays on Benjamin's and Adorno's reading of Kafka whose work helped them develop a distinctive critique of and response to capitalism The third and final section focuses more intently on the question of what it means to gain authentically critical insight into a literary work The essays examine Benjamin's response to specific figures including Georg Buchner Robert Walser and Julien Green whose work he sees as neglected undigested or misunderstood This book offers a unique examination of two pivotal 20th century philosophers through the lens of their shared experiences with literature It will appeal to a wide range of scholars across philosophy literature and German studies Romancing Fascism Kathleen Kerr-Koch, 2013-04-11 Romancing Fascism argues that intellectual responsibility can only be safeguarded if criticism is mobilised both as a poetic and as a critically enlightened endeavour In this analysis of allegory as a function of modernity what is made clear is the difficulty if not impossibility of definitively determining the genealogical antecedents of intellectual trends particularly those considered pernicious to clear thinking Thus Kerr Koch takes a wide ranging approach to the analysis of allegory as it is treated by three controversial writers whose works flank the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the middle and late periods of what we call modernity Walter Benjamin Paul de Man and Percy Bysshe Shelley These three writers have been chosen because they have been at some point recuperated for a theory of postmodernism a term that for some theorists represents liberal free play and for others represents a lack of rigour and a pernicious corruption of thought An Integral View Of Poetry: An India Perspective Vinayak Krishna Gokak,1975 This Is An Original Approach To Poetry The Poetic Process And To An Interpretation Of The Various Constituents Of Poetry And Of The Configuration Of All These Elements Into The Magic That Is Poetry Supported By The Tradition Of Indian Aesthetics That Has Always Regarded Great Poets As Seers And Prophets Stimulated By European Literary Criticism And By Modern Critics Like T S Eliot I A Richards And The New Critics Indian Aesthetics And Modern Indian Thinkers Like Sri Aurobindo Professor Vinayak Krishna Gokak Has Formulated A Theory Of Poetry Which Is A New And Synthetic Statement Doing Justice To All Aspects Of The Subject His Experience As Professor Of English Language And Literature In Quite A Few Indian Universities And As Professor Of Literary Interpretation To Teachers And Lecturers From All Over India Has Stood Him In Good Stead In This Formulation The Book Opens With An Account Of The Poetic Process In Which All The Key Words Of Aesthetic Theory Inspiration Imitation Expression Communication Persuasion And Configuration Are Seen To Fit Into Their Places In A Comprehensive Account Of The Poetic Process This Is Followed By Chapters On Vision In Poetry The Four Levels Of Poetic Vision The Five Kinds Of Poetic Vision The Poet And The Structure Of Personality The Most Original Part Of This Account Of Poetry Comes Up Next In An Analysis Of Attitudes And Moods In Poetry This Is Followed By Chapters On Poetic Meaning Rhythm Imagery Diction Style Propriety A Touchstone Of Poetry And The Fulfilment Of Poetry Students Of Poetry Who Pick Up This Book Will Not Be Easily Inclined To Lay It Down Till They Have Finished Reading It For Many Of Them It Will Be A Profound Experience To Be Cherished And Remembered For Long Cowper: The Task, with Tirocinium William Cowper,1875 A certain order Worth Travis Harder,2019-01-29 No detailed description available for A certain order I.
