The Political Process and Economic Change Bruno S. Frey, Kristen R. Monroe, 1983 In this book 10 international scholars examine the complex relationship between the economy and the polity from a scientific rather than an ideological point of view. In so doing they present an overview of the exciting new work now being done the main ideas and controversies now prevalent and the new approaches to the study of political economy now being pursued Choice, 1964 The party system. We study the effect of various incentive constraints on the policy making process such as lack of credibility, political opportunism, political ideology and divided government. The survey is organized in three parts. Part I deals with monetary policy in a simple Phillips curve model; it covers credibility issues, political business cycles and optimal design of monetary institutions. Part II deals with fiscal policy in a dynamic general equilibrium set up; the main topics here are credibility of tax policy and political determinants of budget deficits. Part III studies economic growth in models with endogenous fiscal policy Planning & Changing, 1970 Institutional Development in a New Democracy Philip W. Alderfer, 1997 The Megali Idea Adamantia Pollis, 1958
