Accounting for Steam and Cotton Robert B. Williams, 2021-10-28 First published in 1988 this book arose from the author's fascination with the period of the late eighteenth century and the two industries of cotton and steam that seem to characterise the period the provision of power through the manufacture of steam engines and the rise to prominence of the cotton industry. Includes photographs and an exploration of people in these industries during the Industrial Revolution.

Investigating Entrepreneurial Opportunities Richard P. Green, II, James J. Carroll, 2000-02-15 Opening your own business is a risky proposition. Personal funds time energy and opportunities are invested in owning and operating a business. Under the best of circumstances the chance of failure is high. Under adverse business conditions failure is nearly certain. The best control for risk is to recognize and avoid bad purchase decisions through the process of due diligence. Due diligence comprises conducting an investigation to determine the full implications of making the acquisition of a business. During the process of due diligence every aspect of the business is examined in exacting detail. Nothing is taken for granted. Investigating Entrepreneurial Opportunities explains the process with simple easy to follow steps. The authors both CPAs who have bought and sold several businesses reveal creative and low cost ways to do your own due diligence in investigating.

entrepreneurial opportunities Sixteen comprehensive chapters cover all the basics including market products insurance facilities assets short and long term liabilities and much more You'll learn insider tips on how to uncover hidden assets and unrecorded liabilities and how to avoid legal troubles The handy reminder checklists at the end of Investigating Entrepreneurial Opportunities are alone worth the price of the book This incredibly street smart book belongs in the hands of anyone who is considering acquiring or starting a business Managerial Accountant's Compass Gary Oliver, 2018-10-09
