Rudolph, 2015-03-01 After World War II France embarked on a project of modernization which included the development of the modern mass home. At Home in Postwar France examines key groups of actors state officials, architects, sociologists, and tastemakers arguing that modernizers looked to the home as a site for social engineering and nation building. Designers and advocates of the modern home contributed to the democratization of French society and the French home of the Trente Glorieuses as it was built and inhabited was a hybrid product of architects, planners, and residents understandings of modernity.
