Swiss Way Of Welfare:

The Swiss Way of Welfare Ralph Segalman, 1986 Study of social security and social policy in Switzerland describes the social structure and social norms which prevent dependency on social assistance covers old age benefit unemployment benefit disability benefit health insurance and family benefit outlines administrative aspects the role of social workers and the emphasis on work attitude and decentralization draws conclusions for the prevention of poverty and the enhancement of upward social mobility in the USA and Western Europe Graphs references statistical tables

Disturbing the Nest David Popenoe, 2020-10-14 Disturbing the Nest assesses the future of the family as an institution through an historical and comparative analysis of the nature causes and social implications of family change in advanced western societies such as the United States New Zealand and Switzerland by focusing on the one society in which family decline is found to be the greatest Sweden The founding of the modern Swedish welfare state was based in large part on the belief that it was necessary for the state to intervene in society in order to improve the situation of the family Of great concern was the low birthrate which was seen as a threat to the very survival of Swedes as a national population group The Social Democrats pioneered welfare measures that aimed to strengthen the family to alleviate its worst trials and tribulations and to make possible harmonious living With the Social Democrats remaining in power continuously until 1976 a period of almost forty five years Sweden went on to implement governmental family policies that are among the most comprehensive and expensive in the world In view of this major policy goal of family improvement the actual situation of the Swedish family today presents a genuine irony some have claimed that Swedish welfare state policies have had consequences that are the opposite of those originally intended Comparing contemporary Swedish family patterns with those of other advanced nations one finds a very high family dissolution rate probably the highest in the Western world and a high percentage of single parent female headed families Even marriage seems to have fallen increasingly out of favor with Sweden having the lowest marriage rate and latest age of first marriage and the highest rate of children born out of wedlock The early pronatalist aspirations of the Swedish government have been spectacularly unsuccessful as Sweden continues to have one of the world's lowest birthrates and smallest average family sizes

Downsizing the U.S.A. Thomas H. Naylor, William H. Willimon, 1997 In this trenchant analysis of American society Thomas H Naylor and William H Willimon take an unabashed stance against the belief that bigger is better and warn that size and technological complexity are not risk free There is a grave price to be paid for our uncritical affirmation of bigness universal solutions to problems dehumanizing uniformity and standardized mass production Naylor and Willimon argue that our government our cities our corporations our schools our churches our military and our social welfare system are all too big too powerful too intrusive too insular and too unresponsive to the needs of individual citizens and small local communities They propose specific strategies for decentralizing and downsizing virtually every major institution in America including America itself The authors audaciously call for the peaceful dissolution of the United States through secession and provide a thoughtful game plan for achieving this controversial objective Economisch en sociaal tijdschrift Instituut voor Postuniversitair Onderwijs (Antwerpen),1987 Switzerland Heinz K. Meier,Regula A. Meier,1990 Rich Democracies Harold L. Wilensky,2002-07 Drawing on data covering the past 50 years and more than 400 interviews with top decision makers Wilensky provides a richly detailed account of the common problems modern governments confront and their contrasting styles of conflict resolution Social Assistance in OECD Countries: Country reports Tony Eardley,Great Britain. Department of Social Security,1996 Presents country by country descriptions as at mid 1994 of assistance schemes and their place within the social security system Includes data on claimant numbers and expenditure and briefly discusses of policy issues current in each country Covers trends since the beginning of the 1980s Journal of Public Policy ,1998 Occasional Paper ,1988 Official Catalogue ... United States Centennial Commission,1876 Reading Graphic Design History David Raizman,2020-12-10 Reading Graphic Design History uses a series of key artifacts from the history of print culture in light of their specific historical contexts It encourages the reader to look carefully and critically at print advertising illustration posters magazine art direction and typography often addressing issues of class race and gender David Raizman s innovative approach intentionally challenges the canon of graphic design history and various traditional understandings of graphic design He re examines icons of graphic design in light of their local contexts avoiding generalisation to explore underlying attitudes about various social issues He encourages new ways of reading graphic design that take into account a broader context for graphic design activity rather than broad views that discourage the understanding of difference and the means by which graphic design communicates cultural values With a foreword by Steven Heller Main building and annexes. Department I. Mining and metallurgy. Department II. Manufactures. Department III. Education and science United States Centennial Commission,1876 International Exhibition, 1876 United States Centennial Commission,1876 International Exhibition, 1876: Main building United States Centennial Commission,1876 Green Parties and Political Change in Contemporary Europe Michael O'Neill,1997 This book offers an up to date guide to the Green parties of Western Europe as the optimism of the 1980s confronts the Green fatigue of the 1990s The approach is both thematic and comparative Green politics in Europe is located in its historical and cultural context There is a comparative analysis of the principal ideological questions policy issues and strategic dilemmas that have confronted the European Greens There are national profiles of Green politics throughout the European Union The conclusion addresses the critical issue of political change in post industrial societies It discusses the contribution of Green politics to the new politics and assesses its likely impact on post modern politics Global Studies E. Gene Frankland,2003-08 Contains background essays on Western Europe and each of its countries Each country report features maps and statistics This volume has a compilation of articles from newspapers and magazines from around the world An annotated list of World Wide Web sites guides students to additional resources Europe E. Gene Frankland,2006 Global

Studies is a unique series designed to provide comprehensive background information and selected world press articles on the regions and countries of the world Each Global Studies volume includes an annotated listing of World Wide Web sites

International Labour Documentation ,1987 Children and Families Sandra Anderson Garcia,Robert Batey,1991 Family relations produce some of the most profound conflicts in modern life The creation and dissolution of family ties spark off fundamental human emotions that frequently clash with alarming force and leave a tangle of legal and ethical complications Children and Families has been chosen as the subject of this new series inaugural volumes because the problems currently besetting the family and particularly those afflicting its younger members are equally challenging to students of psychology law and ethics Although these volumes may provide a few answers to questions on topics such as surrogate parenting social policy or child abuse its more important function will be to facilitate the interdisciplinary exchange of insight and information that appears to be necessary effectively to resolve complicated social issues Institutions and Cities Wetenschappelijke Raad voor het Regeringsbeleid (Netherlands),1990
