Steffen Jensen, Olaf Zenker

Business Studies September 2014 Question Paper From Eastern Cape:

South African Homelands as Frontiers Steffen Jensen, Olaf Zenker, 2018-02-02 This book explores what happened to the homelands in many ways the ultimate apartheid disgrace after the fall of apartheid The nine chapters contribute to understanding the multiple configurations that currently exist in areas formerly declared homelands or Bantustans Using the concept of frontier zones the homelands emerge as areas in which the future of the South African postcolony is being renegotiated contested and remade with hyper real intensity This is so because the many fault lines left over from apartheid its loose ends so to speak between white and black between different ethnicities between rich and poor or differentiated by gender generation and nationality between traditions and modernities or between wilderness and human habitation are particularly acute and condensed in these so called communal areas Hence the book argues that it is particularly in these settings that the postcolonial promise of liberation and freedom must face its test As such the book offers highly nuanced and richly detailed analyses that go to the heart of the diverse dilemmas of post apartheid South Africa as a whole but simultaneously also provides in condensed form an extended case study on the predicaments of African postcoloniality in general This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Southern African Studies
