Potter,2003-01-01      Wherever Green Is Worn Tim Pat Coogan,2002-10-18 A sweeping history of all the places the Irish went when they left Ireland by one of the best known Irish historians in the world      The Irish Experience Since 1800 Thomas E. Hachey, This rich and readable history of modern Ireland covers the political social economic intellectual and cultural dimensions of the country's development from the origins of the Irish Question to the present day In this edition a new introductory chapter covers the period prior to Union and a new concluding chapter takes Ireland into the twenty first century All material has as been substantially revised and updated to reflect more recent scholarship as well as developments during the eventful years since the previous edition The text is richly supplemented with maps photographs and an extensive bibliography There is no comparable brief multidimensional history of modern Ireland      The Irish Donald S. Connery,1972      The Story of the Irish Race Seumas MacManus,1944      The Story of the Irish Race Seamus Macmanus,1946      Ireland's Great Famine in Irish-American History Mary Kelly,2013-11-18 Ireland's Great Famine in Irish American History Enshrining a Fateful Memory offers a new concise interpretation of the history of the Irish in America Author and distinguished professor Mary Kelly's book is the first synthesized volume to track Ireland's Great Famine within America's immigrant history and to consider the impact of the Famine on Irish ethnic identity between the mid 1800s and the end of the twentieth century. Moving beyond traditional emphases on Irish American cornerstones such as church, party and education, the book maps the Famine's legacy over a century and a half of settlement and assimilation. This is the first attempt to contextualize a painful memory that has endured fitfully and unquestionably throughout Irish American historical experience. Migrations Richard Kearney, 1990 The Irish Experience Thomas E. Hachey, Joseph M. Hernon, Lawrence John McCaffrey, 1996 This volume addresses the political, cultural and economic dimensions of Irish life presenting Ireland as a hybrid of cultures and peoples. Coverage includes an explanation of how the literature and folklore reflect the desire for national independence in both political and cultural forms, an analysis of how the Gaelic, Norman, English, Elizabethan, English, Ulster, Planter, English, Scots, Cromwellian, English and Williamite English conflict and meld into the present character of Ireland and the Irish, a discussion of how the English impact, Catholicism, the Land Question, emigration, literacy and Gaelic cultural nationalism coalesce to create Irish nationalism, emphasis on the influence of British presence on Irish values and personality, an examination of how the Irish question moved Britain in the direction of liberal democracy and the welfare state and an exploration of Ireland as a paradigm case of a country fighting imperialism and colonialism to move from colony to nation state, accomplishing the latter through one of the 20th century's most notable guerrilla wars of liberation. The Irish in the New Communities Patrick O'Sullivan, 1992 A series of case studies and theoretical chapters to continue the exploration of major themes within Irish migration studies. The emphasis is the migrant Irish relationship with the great cities of Britain, America and Australia. Includes a chapter about Butte, Montana which had an Irish population of 8 000 out of a total of 30 000 in 1900. The Story of the Irish Race; a Popular History of Ireland HardPress, MacManus Seumas 1869-1960, 2013-06 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact.
