Forging Environmentalism Joanne R Bauer,2015-01-28 Drawing on an unusually rich empirical base this timely and compelling book examines how environmental values are constructed and legitimized within the policy process It trains the spotlight on four environmentally significant countries China Japan India and the United States representing a wide diversity of cultural social economic and political characteristics Through a combination of case studies and comparative analysis the contributors illuminate cultural assumptions standards and analytic techniques that shape environmental actions and policies around the world Forging Environmentalism provides valuable direction regarding what can be done to secure public support for environmental policies Incorporating expert legal economic philosophical sociological and political perspective points the way toward the possibilities for a convergence of environmental norms and values across diverse cultures

Sea Breezes ,1981 Making Commons Dynamic Prateep Kumar Nayak,2021-03-01 With an emphasis on the challenges of sustaining the commons across local to global scales Making Commons Dynamic examines the empirical basis of theorising the concepts of commonisation and decommonisation as a way to understand commons as a process and offers analytical directions for policy and practice that can potentially help maintain commons as commons in the future Focusing on commonisation decommonisation as an analytical framework useful to examine and respond to changes in the commons the chapter contributions explore how natural resources are commonised and decommonised through the influence of multi level internal and external drivers and their implications for commons governance across disparate geographical and temporal contexts It draws from a large number of geographically diverse empirical cases 20 countries in North South and Central America and South and South East Asia They involve a wide range of commons related to fisheries forests grazing wetlands coastal marine rivers and dams aquaculture wildlife tourism groundwater surface freshwater mountains small islands social movements and climate The book is a transdisciplinary endeavour with contributions by scholars from geography history sociology anthropology political studies planning human ecology cultural and applied ecology environmental and development studies environmental science and technology public policy Indigenous tribal studies Latin American and Asian studies and environmental change and governance and authors representing the commons community NGOs and policy Contributors include academics community members NGOs practitioners and policymakers Therefore commonisation decommonisation lessons drawn from these chapters are well suited for contributing to the practice policy and theory of the commons both locally and globally
