Chasing the Chinese Dream William N. Brown,2021-06-01 This open access book explores the historical cultural and philosophical contexts that have made anti poverty the core of Chinese society since Liberation in 1949 and why poverty alleviation measures evolved from the simplistic aid of the 1950s to Xi Jinping s precision poverty alleviation and its goal of eliminating absolute poverty by 2020 The book also addresses the implications of China s experience for other developing nations tackling not only poverty but such issues as pandemics rampant urbanization and desertification exacerbated by global warming The first of three parts draws upon interviews of rural and urban Chinese from diverse backgrounds and local and national leaders These interviews conducted in even the remotest areas of the country offer candid insights into the challenges that have forced China to continually evolve its programs to resolve even the most intractable cases of poverty The second part explores the historic cultural and philosophical roots of old China s meritocratic government and how its ancient Chinese ethics have led to modern Chinese socialism s stance that poverty amidst plenty is immoral Dr Huang Chengwei one of China s foremost anti poverty experts explains the challenges faced at each stage as China s anti poverty measures evolved over 70 years to emphasize enablement over aid and to foster bottom up initiative and entrepreneurialism culminating in Xi Jinping s precision poverty alleviation The book also addresses why national economic development alone cannot reduce poverty poverty alleviation programs must be people centered with measurable and accountable practices that reach even to household level which China has done with its First Secretary program The third part explores the potential for adopting China s practices in other nations including the potential for replicating China s successes in developing countries through such measures as the Belt and Road Initiative This book also addresses prevalent misperceptions about China s growing global presence and why other developing nations must address historic systemic causes of poverty and inequity before they can undertake sustainable poverty alleviation measures of their own Broken Purposes; Or, The Good Time Coming. Hurston, Deborah G. Plant, 2025-01-07 A never before published novel from beloved author Zora Neale Hurston revealing the historical Herod the Great not the villain the Bible makes him out to be but a religious and philosophical man who lived a life of valor and vision In the 1950s as a continuation of Moses Man of the Mountain Zora Neale Hurston penned a historical novel about one of the most infamous figures in the Bible Herod the Great In Hurston's retelling Herod is not the wicked ruler of the New Testament who is charged with the slaughter of the innocents but a forerunner of Christ a beloved king who enriched Jewish culture and brought prosperity and peace to Judea From the peaks of triumph to the depths of human misery the historical Herod appears to have been singled out and especially endowed to attract the lightning of fate Hurston writes An intimate of both Marc Antony and Julius Caesar the Judean king lived during the first century BCE in a time of war and imperial expansion that was rife with political assassinations and bribery as the old world gave way to the new Portraying Herod within this vivid and dynamic world of antiquity little known to modern readers Hurston's unfinished manuscript brings this complex compelling and misunderstood leader fully into focus Hurston shared her findings about Herod's rise his reign and his waning days in letters to friends and associates Text from three of these letters concludes the manuscript in an intimate way Scholar Editor Deborah Plant's Commentary A Story Finally Told assesses Hurston's pioneering work and underscores Hurston's perspective that the first century BCE has much to teach us and that the lens through which to view this dramatic and stirring era is the life and times of Herod the Great Chambers's Edinburgh journal, conducted by W.
