Merton was arguably the twentieth century's most widely published and widely read spiritual writer. This book explores Merton's prophetic writings and experience as they offer guidance for those seeking to experience God to simplify their lives to live more humanly and to shape Christian community in the face of alienation, consumerism, noise, and technology. The book includes parts of three previously unpublished conference contributions by Merton on technology: Exploring Merton's thoughts on monastic renewal, prayer, radical simplicity, ecology, technology, war, peace, and interfaith dialogue. Dekar reminds us why Merton was so influential and why he continues to be so.

An Introduction to Christian Mysticism Thomas Merton, 2008. In these conferences dating to 1961, Thomas Merton provides for his audience of young monks an overview of major themes and figures in the Christian mystical tradition as an integral part of their religious inheritance and a crucial part of their spiritual formation. From Fathers of the Church such as St. Athanasius and St. Gregory of Nyssa through such important medieval theologians as St. Bonaventure, Hadewijch, and Meister Eckhart to the great Spanish Carmelites St. Teresa of Avila and St. John of the Cross, Merton traces such key topics as the integration of theology and spirituality, the importance of natural contemplation, recognizing the divine presence in creation, the centrality of apophatic or dark contemplation, and the role of spiritual direction in forming mature and balanced contemplatives.

Signs of Peace William D. Apel, 2006. During the last decade of his life, Thomas Merton corresponded with numerous people around the globe about world religions and the need for interfaith understanding. Initiating contact with figures like Zen scholar D. T. Suzuki, Thich Nhat Hanh, and Rabbi Abraham Heschel, he sought not only to expand his understanding of other faiths but to find like-minded friends who might share his dream of a global community of the spirit. Such people, whom he called living sacraments or signs of peace, were those able to unite in themselves and experience in their own lives all that is best and most true in the numerous spiritual traditions.

Cistercian Studies Quarterly, 1998. Peace in the Post-Christian Era Thomas Merton, 2004. Writing at the height of the Cold War, Merton issued this passionate challenge to the idea that unthinkable violence can be squared with the Gospel of Christ. Censors of Merton's order blocked publication of Peace in the Post-Christian Era, but 40 years later the message remains eerily topical.
