Straightforward Guide To Competition Law:

A Straightforward Guide to Competition Law of the United Kingdom Freya Yule,2005 This book is perfect for the layperson businessperson student or legal practitioner seeking a practical accessible summary Legislative repeal and radical enhancements overhauled this field of law Previously the law was weak now the offences and penalties include director disqualification and prison sentences In this relatively new field there is a demand for a short text that conveniently explains the concepts in practical terms to the lay or business reader Thi is the only book of its kind to explain this challenging field

An Introductory Guide to EC Competition Law and Practice Valentine Korah,1994 EU State Aid Control Philipp Werner,Vincent Verouden,2025-02-19 EU State Aid Control Law and Economics Second Edition Edited by Philipp Werner a chapter on State aid in times of crisis which discusses not only the COVID rules but also the broader implications of the use of temporary crisis rules on the enforcement of State aid rules and chapters on State aid procedure and private enforcement of State aid As a critical assessment of the current status of EU State aid control from both legal and economic perspectives and as an authoritative guide through its complexities and pitfalls this book will be of immeasurable value now and in the coming years to all stakeholders required to understand interpret and apply the State aid rules Philipp Werner is a Partner in Jones Day s Brussels office He has extensive experience in the area of State aid and advises Member States as well as public and private companies on all areas of State aid and competition law Vincent Verouden is an Economic and Policy Analyst at the European Commission responsible for the ex post evaluation of competition policy and enforcement He previously worked as a Director of an economic consultancy active in the field of competition economics 2014 2019 and held various positions in DG Competition including that of Deputy Chief Economist 2012 2014 Collective Actions Stefan Wrbka,Steven Van Uytsel,Mathias Siems,2012-04-30 This volume of essays examines whether collective actions can enhance access to justice for multilayer interests Day-to-Day Competition Law Patrick Hubert,Marie Leppard,Olivier Lécroart,2014-06-05

Companies today must consider and comply with competition law in their daily business management The financial and reputational risks for breaching such rules are severe and the success of many merger and acquisition projects depends very much on it While competition law rules become increasingly sophisticated business people are still expected to comply with it Rather than giving a theoretical approach that can be found in a typical practitioner s book or textbook Day to Day competition law a practical guide for businesses is genuinely a practical book The interaction between theory and practice is the main feature of the book Major competition law issues are explained in a jargon free manner and summarized in a nutshell at the end of each chapter Not only will the reader gain an understanding of competition law rules but also will gain a better understanding on how a company can behave and what to do if it is subject to an investigation by the competition authorities This practical guidance may serve as a platform for designing internal in house rules governing behaviour in relation to competition law and may also trigger a revision of such rules in light of some of the issues raised by the authors

While a particular focus is drawn on the EU as the EU competition law system is replicated in a large number of countries around the world reference to differing rules and other key jurisdictions such as the United States is also made. This book is written to appeal to business people as well as non-specialized in-house lawyers and all those who wish to understand competition law in a clear and practical way. The authors' experience in the field of competition law ranges from leading investigations on behalf of competition authorities to applying competition law in a major global company in its daily activities and advising multinational clients of one of the world's leading law firms. It is this professional insight which provides the reader with an invaluable inside view of all aspects of competition law from the way authorities think to the impacts competition law has on businesses. Consumer Involvement in Private EU Competition Law Enforcement Maria Ioannidou, 2015-09-03. Despite the growing importance of consumer welfare in EU competition law debates there remains a significant disconnect between rhetoric and reality as consumers and their interests still play only an ancillary role in this area of law. Consumer Involvement in Private EU Competition Law Enforcement is the first monograph to exclusively address this highly topical and much debated subject providing a timely and wide-ranging examination of the need for more active consumer participation in competition law. Written by an expert in the field it sets out a comprehensive framework of policy implications and arguments for greater involvement positioning the debate in the context of a broader EU law perspective. It outlines pragmatic approaches to remedial and procedural measures that would enable consumer empowerment. Finally the book identifies key institutional and political obstacles to the adoption of effective measures and suggests alternative routes to enhance the role of consumers in private competition law enforcement. The book's innovative approach combining normative analysis and practical solutions make it invaluable for academics, policy makers and practitioners in the field.

Foreign Direct Investment, Location and Competitiveness European International Business Academy, Conference, 2008. Analyzes factors which may explain and/or influence the relationship between the competitiveness of multinational enterprises and the countries in which they operate. This book addresses issues such as advances in the determinants and strategy of multinational business activity and the determinants of location competitiveness of countries.

Restrictions of EU Competition Law in the Digital Age Bernadette Zelger, 2023-06-28. This book offers an in-depth legal analysis concerning the notion of restrictions of competition be it by object restrictions according to Article 101 TFEU or prima facie abusive practices treated according to the form-based approach under Article 102 TFEU. Although extensive research has been conducted on the notion of object infringements of competition there is no systematic review of this topic covering both competition provisions namely Articles 101 and 102 TFEU. This book fills that gap by providing an extensive analysis of the relevant case law while also covering new phenomena stemming from the digital revolution and its impact on the functioning of traditional markets. In this regard particular attention is paid to the concept of prima facie infringements and the analysis necessary for their successful establishment. Object restrictions and object abuses are not infringements per se in the sense that they can be established in the abstract and without consideration of the actual legal and economic context context analysis within which a measure is implemented Hence the indispensable context analysis is informed by the potential economic effects of a given measure Examining the changes regarding the economic reality and how markets work in the digital economy this book makes a valuable contribution to the current debate about whether our competition law toolkit is fit and proper to deal with the challenges posed by digitalization The author argues that while there is a coherent framework covering both Treaty competition provisions as regards object restrictions of competition the increased use of an actual effect analysis and thus the concept of a restriction of competition by effect represents an underestimated and underused weapon for combating measures that are ambivalent from a competition law perspective as regards their anticompetitive or non detrimental nature in a digital economy
