Garnett, L. Vallée, A. Brandl. Imperial ed Richard Garnett, 1899 Leichtigkeit und Enthusiasmus Esther Barbara Kirschner, 2009 Edited by Annelie Lutgens Esther Barbara Kirschner Text by Markus Bruderlin Dominic Eichler Michael Glasmeier The Stranger in the Mirror Jane Shilling, 2011 Middle age took Jane Shilling by surprise She hadn't seen it coming and she certainly wasn't ready for it Must she accept that middle age is the beginning of the end or is there one great adventure still to be grabbed Her sense of hope and excitement seems at odds with her contemporaries resolute denial or rueful resignation in the face of middle age And what of the strange conflicting attitudes that surround the public perception of middle aged women This is one woman's attempt to understand what middle age means for her and whether as a new generation of women turns 50 some kind of revolution is under way Back cover The Universal Anthology Richard Garnett, 1899 The house of mystery Richard Marsh, 1898 Three Complete Novels Sidney Sheldon, 1992 A collection of three stories The Tightrope Men Desmond Bagley, 1984 Stranger in the Mirror Robert Levine, 2019-02-07 Who are we Where is the boundary between us and everything else Are we all multiple personalities And how can we control who we become From distinguished psychologist Robert Levine comes this provocative and entertaining scientific exploration of the most personal and important of all landscapes the physical and psychological entity we call our self Using a combination of case studies and cutting edge research in psychology biology neuroscience virtual reality and many other fields Levine challenges cherished beliefs about the unity and stability of the self but also suggests that we are more capable of change than we know Transformation Levine shows is the human condition at virtually every level Physically our cells are unrecognizable from one moment to the next Cognitively our self perceptions are equally changeable A single glitch can make us lose track of a body part or our entire body or to confuse our very self with that of another person Psychologically we switch back and forth like quicksilver between incongruent sometimes adversarial sub selves Socially we appear to be little more than an ever changing troupe of actors And culturally the boundaries of the self vary wildly around the world from the confines of one's body to an entire village The self in short is a fiction vague arbitrary and utterly intangible But it is also interminably fluid And this unleashes a world of potential Engaging informative and ultimately liberating Stranger in the Mirror will change forever how you think about your self and what you might become Adventures of the Spirit Phyllis Sternberg Perrakis, 2007 In Adventures of the Spirit Phyllis Sternberg Perrakis brings together eleven American and Canadian literary gerontologists to examine a new kind of adventure for the older woman in literature This volume of critical essays analyzes recent works by contemporary women writers whose characters midlife and later life changes are mapped in their narratives Rather than focusing on the painful losses undergone by women of a certain age recent narratives explore a new kind of adventure of aging one that is spiritual in nature enabling new ways of being and becoming but open ended and capable of great variation in practice In particular these journeys of the spirit focus on the retrospective movement undergone by a midlife or older woman as she is led by inner or outer forces to assess where she has come from and decipher a shape or pattern to her journey These journeys do not leave the body behind as they map new spiritual territory Rather they honor spirit s embrace of the natural world and relationships as well as its aspirations for evolving development and eternal existence The essays in Adventures of the Spirit employ a wide variety of critical lenses to chart these adventures including archetypal Sufi post colonial and feminist analysis archival research aboriginal life writing and trauma theory These studies bring a new understanding to women s adventure of age in both literary texts and in life
