George Frederick Chambers

Story Of The Eye:

Story of the Eye Georges Bataille, 2013-09-26 Bataille's first novel published under the pseudonym Lord Auch is still his most notorious work. In this explicit pornographic fantasy the young male narrator and his lovers Simone and Marcelle embark on a sexual quest involving sadism, torture, orgies, madness and defilement culminating in a final act of transgression. Shocking and sacrilegious, Story of the Eye is the fullest expression of Bataille's obsession with the closeness of sex, violence and death. Yet it is also hallucinogenic in its power and is one of the erotic classics of the twentieth century.

The Eyes of the Woods: A Story of the Ancient Wilderness

Joseph Altsheler, 2019-05-22 The Eye of the Law Michael Stolleis, 2008-09-25 Written by the eminent German legal historian Michael Stolleis, these two Essays on Legal History offer an original and compelling history of the symbolism through which law is characterised as being above us. In The Eye of the Law the history of this metaphor is followed from antiquity through to the present day from the Greek Eye of Justice, the eye of the impartial judge of the Underworld, the Eye of God watching past, present and future, the Eye of the Prince guiding his subjects to the almighty Eye of the Law. While our belief in the law may have become brittle, nothing escapes what is now the Eye of Big Brother. In The Name of the Law takes up the various formulas used to legitimate the decisions of the courts from the times of absolutism over the 19th century until today. The speaker who speaks in the name of a higher being underlines his function, his authority comes from above. And it is in the name of god, king, people, state, nation or law that a weak earthly justice receives its support.

Story of the Eye Georges Bataille, 2001 A pornographic fantasy in which the young male narrator and his lovers Simone and Marcelle embark on a sexual quest involving sadism, torture, orgies, madness and defilement culminating in a final act of transgression.
