By

Langston Hughes

Three hundred years in the deepest South:
But God put a song and a prayer in my mouth.
God put a dream like steel in my soul.
Now, through my children, I'm reaching the goal.

Now, through my children, young and free,
I realized the blessing deed to me.
I couldn't read then. I couldn't write.
I had nothing, back there in the night.

Sometimes, the valley was filled with tears,
But I kept trudging on through the lonely years.
Sometimes, the road was hot with the sun,
But I had to keep on till my work was done.

I had to keep on! No stopping for me --
I was the seed of the coming Free.

served in the U S Colored Troops tells the battle experiences of the almost 200 000 black men who fought for the Union cause Determined to document the contributions of his fellow black soldiers and to underscore the valor and manhood of his race Williams gathered his material from the official records of U S and foreign governments and from the orderly books and personal recollections of officers commanding Negro troops during the American Civil War Description from Fordham University Press edition History of the Negro Race in America from 1619 to 1880 George Washington Williams,1882
