Heyward Sanders,2017-12-23 Time had permitted me to understand that information is strictly prohibited and may contain confidential or legally privileged and protected knowledge for some but does it mean the information is true that protecting a few or misinformation for the ones it s prohibited not to acknowledge That saying the truth will set you free or do it and it will set us back I heard all the sayings and how they became rhymes to make them have a better sound affect That the sound affects created a comfortability lifestyle where some walk around proudly Which resulted in destroying all things that can challenge their ego That itself created a wall of prisons around them in a mentally way anything others might say have no effect to
