Technology Knowledge Transfer In China:

Technology and Knowledge Transfer in China Richard Li-Hua,2004 Examines and addresses the key elements of how to achieve successful technology transfer    Competitiveness of Chinese Firms R. Li-Hua,2014-11-05 This book addresses the multi facet competitiveness of firms in China from an angle of strategic management of technology and innovation The Chinese vanguard companies have been excellent in identifying strategic position and appropriately making strategic decisions and effectively making strategy in action    Innovation and Regional Development in China Ingo Liefner,Yehua Dennis Wei,2013-07-24 Although China is now the factory of the world there is no reason to expect that it will always be content with manufacturing labor intensive goods for foreign corporations Scholars must now ask What is the current level of innovation in China And how can we face this challenge and renovate industrial production and innovation capacities in developed countries This edited volume investigates the unique characteristics of Chinese innovation and regional development China s policy framework and the role that transnational corporations play in China s increasing innovation activities This book contributes to the heated debate regarding pathways for technology progress and regional development in developing countries and identifies the ways in which local production networks respond to different configurations of external linkages Linking patterns of global and local production networks with the trajectories of technology development and regional development allows the authors to theorize and test whether and how particular configurations of production networks generate divergent long term local productivity growth and technological development outcomes Innovation and Regional Development in China will be of interest to geographers economists China specialists development specialists and scholars working on innovation and regional development in developing areas and transition countries

Knowledge Transfer and Innovation for a Western Multinational Company in Chinese and Indian Technology Clusters Elvire Meier-Comte,2012    Chinese Organizations in Sub-Saharan Africa Terence Jackson,Lynette Louw,Dev K.

Boojihawon,2020-11-09 Trade between China and Africa is increasing year on year while the West increasingly debates the nature and implications of China s presence Yet little research exists at the organizational and community levels While western press reporting is overwhelmingly negative African governments mostly welcome the Chinese presence But what happens at the management level How are Chinese organizations run What are they bringing to communities What is their impact on the local job market How do they manage staff How are they working with local firms This book seeks to provide a theoretical framework for understanding Chinese organizations and management in Africa and to explore how their interventions are playing out at the organizational and community levels in sub Saharan Africa Based on rigorous empirical research exploring emerging themes in specific African countries this book develops implications for management knowledge education and training provision and policy formulation Importantly it seeks to inform future scholarship on China s management impact in the world generally on Africa s future development and on international and cross cultural management scholarship Primarily aimed at scholars of international management with an interest in China and or in China in Africa this important book will also be of great interest to those working in the area of development studies international politics and international relations Investigation of Technology Transfer from University to Industry in China

Shuiyuan Tang,2008 Chinese Civil-Military Relations Nan Li,2010-04-05 This new book addresses three key issues What has changed in Chinese civil military relations What can account for changes And what are the implications for Chinese security policy and strategic behaviour It tackles these questions by sharply assessing civil military dynamics in elite politics such dynamics in national security and arms control policy relations between commanders and political commissars relations between the PLA and society civil military dynamics regarding defence economics and logistics and such dynamics regarding dual use technologies and defence industry These analyses build into the central theme that the emphasis of Chinese civil military relations is shifting from politics to military tasks This is an extremely important new development by a nation many predict to become a super power in the twenty first century This is therefore essential reading for all students and scholars of strategic and security studies Chinese studies and international relations Proceedings of IAC in Budapest 2018 Group of Authors,2018-08-14 International Academic Conference on Global Education Teaching and Learning and International Provided by publisher    Business Networks and Strategic Alliances in China Stewart Clegg,Dr. Karen Wang, Mike Berrell, 2007 Business Networks and Strategic Alliances in China addresses how knowledge transfer and innovation are interwoven within complex networks and how social capital contributes to the acquisition of crucial resources and business success in multi type enterprises in China. The book explains how China's remarkable global economic impact in recent years has developed from foreign investment and that the dominant vehicle for economic development has been the International Joint Venture IJV between Chinese manufacturers and overseas enterprises. Strict guidelines on FDI mean that foreign firms have been obliged to form relationships with Chinese organizations. The authors illustrate that as a direct result the quality and nature of the relations networks and alliances forged is crucial for the success of Chinese businesses. A sophisticated empirical theoretical comparative and historical guide to understanding the nature of business networks in China is provided by this work. As such it makes a distinct contribution to the furtherance of evidence based management theory and practice and will strongly appeal to those with an interest in management, international business and Asian studies.
