John Venn And The Clapham Sect:

John Venn and the Clapham Sect Michael Hennell, 1958 John Venn and the Clapham Sect, by Michael Hennell
Michael Hennell, 1958 The World, The Flesh and the Devil Andrew Sharp, 2016-10-24 New Zealanders know Samuel Marsden as the founder of the CMS missions that brought Christianity and perhaps sheep to New Zealand. Australians know him as the flogging parson who established large landholdings and was dismissed from his position as magistrate for exceeding his jurisdiction. English readers know of Marsden for his key role in the history of missions and empire. In this major biography spanning research and the subject's life across England, New South Wales and New Zealand, Andrew Sharp tells the story of Marsden's life from the inside. Sharp focuses on revealing to modern readers the powerful evangelical lens through which Marsden understood the world. By diving deeply into key moments, the voyage out, the disputes with Macquarie, the founding of missions, Sharp gets us to reimagine the world as Marsden saw it, always under threat from the Prince of Darkness, in need of a bold reprover of vice, a world written in the words of the King James Bible. Andrew Sharp takes us back into the nineteenth-century world and an evangelical mind to reveal the past as truly a foreign country. African Initiative and Inspiration in the East African Revival Daewon Moon, 2022-09-12 The East African Revival is a fascinating historical example of the significant role indigenous agency can play in creating a new Christian spirituality. African revivalists initiated the spread of the movement, employing creative practices such as public testimony and fellowship meetings to sustain the effects of conversion experiences. Daewon Moon integrates theological and sociological analyses of conversion with interviews and personal narratives that express insiders' perspectives. As active agents in the multiethnic and multicultural movement, African revivalists articulate through their words and changed lives what it means to be saved. One Hundred Years Church Missionary Society, Eugene Stock, 1899 The Trend of Economic Thinking F.A.
