Dunning, 2012 The Economic Theory of the Multinational Enterprise Peter J. Buckley, Mark Casson, 1985-06-18 Local versus Global Logic Rick Molz, Catalin Ratiu, Ali Taleb, 2010-07-21 A key distinctive feature of Multinational Enterprises MNEs as organizations resides in the fact that they span across borders This exposes them to dissimilar and often unfamiliar social and economic conditions as they venture in foreign countries MNEs from industrialized economies that are active in developing countries and emerging markets face particularly challenging hurdles due to both economic and institutional discrepancies between their home and host countries This book focuses on the uneasy interaction between the traditional logics of developing countries and the economic logic of MNEs The traditional logics of most developing countries are built around community based legitimacy and an intuitive but concrete epistemology Conversely the economic logic of MNEs from developed economies is built around technical and economic legitimacy and an abstract intellectual epistemology Unpacking the uneasy interactions between these two logics will help achieve MNEs objectives of competitiveness in developing countries as well as globally The Montreal Local Global Research Group is a well recognized research group in formulating and researching local and global issues in strategic management from the perspective of integrating divergent dominant logics into the strategy conceptualization process and this will be the first book to be dedicated to the study of the interaction between the traditional logic of developing country and the economic logic of Multinational Enterprise MNE The cultural diversity of the contributing authors and the multidisciplinary approach offers a fresh perspective from which to explore beneficial corporate and local strategies that promote long term economic growth consistent with local traditional and cultural norms This collection will be primarily of interest to scholars of international business international development and economics Furthermore this book is immediately relevant to decision makers in Multinational corporations NGOs and political decision makers that mediate the interaction between local actors and corporate agents in developing and transitional economies The Multinational Enterprise in Transition Ashok Kapoor, Phillip Donald Grub, 1972 Collection of readings on the definition emergence and function of the multinational enterprise covers management approaches in terms of business organization marketing accounting financing manufacturing research and development etc and includes foreign investment in developing countries political problems future prospects etc Diagrams references and statistical tables The Multinational Enterprise Peter J. Buckley, 1989-06-18 These papers provide an integrated treatment of the theory with its applications for industrial sectors regions and international business policy The theory is applied to smaller firms to co operative agreements between firms and to exports in the strategy of large multinational firms      The Multinational Enterprise Mark Casson,2018-02-23 This book summarises Mark Casson s recent research on the multinational enterprise This work is firmly rooted in history and examines the evolution of the internalisation theory of the multinational enterprise over the past forty years and in the light of this considers its potential for further development The book also explores internationalisation theory in respect to marketing and brands the supply chain risk management as well as methodology      The Multinational Enterprise Revisited P. Buckley,M. Casson,2009-11-30 The key writings by the authors on the future of the multinational enterprise published over the last thirty years It contains seminal pieces with a new introduction and conclusion to tie these pieces together in a comprehensive overview of the theory of the multinational enterprise      Local Versus Global Logic Rick Molz,Catalin Ratiu,Ali Taleb,2013-06-25 This book focuses on the uneasy interaction between a developing country traditional logic and Multinational Enterprise MNE economic logic offering multidisciplinary perspectives from South America Africa Asia Europe and North America EBL
