Moore,2023-11-21 The Bible encourages believers to love God with all their hearts Interestingly enough there is no command to like God Is the admonition to like God conspicuously absent due to its inherent difficulty If we are honest we can safely affirm that there are unlikable realities about our world that critics allege reflect poorly on the perceived nature of God However there is a lack of awareness regarding alternative ways to understand such realities Divine Frustrations is an attempt to bridge that gap by providing a balanced engaging approach to revisiting the unpleasant aspects of God s dealings with humanity Drawing on decades of interactions with students atheists critics inmates and church members as well as people from all walks of life Moore offers reflections on both sides of the most common complaints leveled against God Whether you are a believer or a skeptic your approach to various topics will be challenged If you are open to considering alternatives to what you believe as well as new insights into your own views read on A Complete Concordance to the Bible of the Last Translation ... Psalms David G. Firth,2025-10-23 The Bible is both a divine and a human book It is the inspired word of God for his people whether in biblical times or for the church today It is also a fully human book written by different people in a variety of cultural settings Knowledge of biblical language and society is essential if the meaning of the human writer is to be grasped fully The Apollos Old Testament Commentary aims to take with equal seriousness the divine and human aspects of Scripture It expounds the books of the Old Testament in a scholarly manner accessible to non experts and shows the relevance of the Old Testament to modern readers This commentary begins with an introduction which gives an overview of the issues of date authorship sources and so on but which also outlines more fully than usual the theology of the Psalms and provides pointers toward its interpretation and contemporary application The annotated translation of the Hebrew text by the author forms the basis for the subsequent commentary The form and structure section examines the context of a passage its use of rhetorical devices and source and form critical issues The comment section is a thorough detailed exegesis of the historical and theological meaning of the passage The explanation the goal of the commentary offers a full exposition of the theological message within the framework of biblical theology and a commitment to the inspiration and authority of the Old Testament
