Test Of Time:

The Rock Canon Carys Wyn Jones, 2017-07-05 Canons are central to our understanding of our culture and yet in the last thirty years there has been much conflict and uncertainty created by the idea of the canon In essence the canon comprises the works and artists that are widely accepted to be the greatest in their field Yet such an apparently simple construct embodies a complicated web of values and mechanisms Canons are also inherently elitist however Carys Wyn Jones here explores the emerging reflections of values terms and mechanisms from the canons of Western literature and classical music in the reception of rock music Jones examines the concept of the canon as theorized by scholars in the fields of literary criticism and musicology before moving on to search for these canonical facets in the reception of rock music as represented by ten albums Bob Dylan's Highway 61 Revisited The Beach Boys Pet Sounds The Beatles Revolver The Velvet Underground's The Velvet Underground Nico Van Morrison's Astral Weeks Marvin Gaye's What's Going On The Rolling Stones Exile on Main St Patti Smith's Horses The Sex Pistols Never Mind the Bollocks Here's the Sex Pistols and Nirvana's Nevermind Jones concludes that in the reception of rock music we are not only trying to organize the past but also mediate the present and any canon of rock music must now negotiate a far more pluralized culture and possibly accept a greater degree of change than has been evident in the canons of literature and classical music in the last two centuries Statistical Analysis of Human Growth and Development Yin Bun Cheung, 2013-10-28 Statistical Analysis of Human Growth and Development is an accessible and practical guide to a wide range of basic and advanced statistical methods that are useful for studying human growth and development Designed for nonstatisticians and statisticians new to the analysis of growth and development data the book collects methods scattered through Historicizing the Enlightenment, Volume 2 Michael McKeon, 2023-07-14 Enlightenment critics from Dryden through Johnson and Wordsworth conceived the modern view that art and especially literature entails a double reflection a reflection of the world and a reflection on the process by which that reflection is accomplished Instead neoclassicism and Augustanism have been falsely construed as involving a one dimensional imitation of classical texts and an unselfconscious representation of the world In fact these Enlightenment movements adopted an oblique perspective that registers the distance between past tradition and its present reenactment between representation and presence Two modern movements Romanticism and modernism have appropriated as their own these innovations which derive from Enlightenment thought Both of these movements ground their error in a misreading of imitation as understood by Aristotle and his Enlightenment proponents Rightly understood neoclassical imitation constitutively aware of the difference between what it knows and how it knows it is an experimental inquiry that generates a range of prefixes counter mock anti neo that mark formal degrees of its epistemological detachment Romantic ideology has denied the role of the imagination in Enlightenment imitation imposing on the eighteenth century a dichotomous periodization duplication versus imagination the mirror versus the lamp Structuralist ideology has dichotomized narration and description form and content structure and history Poststructuralist ideology has propounded for the novel a contradictory novel tradition realism modernism postmodernism postcolonialism whose stages both constitute a sequence and collapse it each stage claiming the innovation of the stage that precedes it Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press
