Music Criticisms, 1846-99 Eduard Hanslick, 1963 The Music Seller Reference Book, 1931 Velar Fronting in German Dialects Tracy Alan Hall, 2022 Velar Fronting VF is the name for any synchronic or diachronic phonological process shifting the velar place of articulation to the palatal region of the vocal tract A well known case of VF in Standard German is the rule specifying that the fricative x assimilates to after front segments VF also refers to the change from velar sounds like k g to palatals c The book provides a thorough investigation of VF in German dialects Data are drawn from over 300 original sources for varieties that are or were spoken in Germany Austria Switzerland and other countries VF differs geographically along three parameters A triggers B targets and C outputs VF triggers A are typically defined according to vowel height In some systems VF is induced only by high front vowels in others by high and mid front vowels and in yet others by high mid and low front vowels Some varieties treat consonants r l n as triggers while others do not VF can be nonassimilatory in which case the rule applies even in the context of back segments In many varieties of German VF targets B consist of the two fricatives x but in other dialects the targets comprise x but not In some places VF affects not only x but also velar stops and the velar nasal The output of VF C is typically palatal given the input x but in many other places it is the alveolopalatal A major theme is the way in which VF interacts with synchronic and diachronic changes creating or eliminating structures which can potentially undergo it or trigger it In many dialects the relationship between velars x and palatals is transparent because velars only occur in the back vowel context and palatals only when adjacent to front sounds In that type of system independent processes can either feed VF by creating additional structures which the latter can undergo or they can bleed it by eliminating potential structures to which VF could apply The Sound Track Book of the Theatre, 1949 The Bookmart Halkett (i.e. Richard Halkatt Lord (ed.)), 1883 The Phonetic Journal, 1890 The Athenaeum, 1873 London labour and the London poor Henry Mayhew, 1861 The Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1886 The Penguin Book of Comics George Perry, Alan Aldridge, 1971 This is the story of strip cartoons since comics began of the artists who created the characters and of the characters who took charge of their creators Here you ll find the true tale of Jane and Flook of Popeye Pip Squeak and Wilfred and L il Abner of Tarzan and Captain America and Peanuts and of all the characters who live in cages but rule the world or the better half of it In this sumptuous new and supercharged edition of a now classic book George Perry has updated the original text and Alan Aldridge
