The Parent Killer:

Family Murder Susan Hatters Friedman, M.D., 2018-08-20 This book offers a unique framework for examining the various types of family murder delving into the commonalities the differences and society's misconceptions and providing readers with a comprehensive guide to begin to understand these tragedies Murder in Families John M. Dawson, Patrick A. Langan, 1994 Satanism and Family Murder in Late Apartheid South Africa Nicky Falkof, 2015-07-04 This book discusses two moral panics that appeared in the media in late apartheid South Africa the Satanism scare and the so called epidemic of white family murder The analysis of these symptoms of social and political change reveals important truths about whiteness gender violence history nationalism and injustice in South Africa and beyond Parents Killing Children Janice Sim, 2018-10-04 Parents Killing Children Crossing the Invisible Line explores hidden forms of violence within the family This socio legal study addresses the interactions between the family and the state focusing on six parent perpetrators and the ways in which child endangerment is concealed within society Drawing on symbolic interactionism mythology and a modelling of case study data this book puts forward a unique conceptualisation of representation and risk both on familial and state levels The failure of the state to intervene and neutralise volatile perpetrators also sheds light on the socio legal status of children society's most vulnerable and the book concludes by discussing means by which the underlying social conditions and maladies symptomatic of child abuse and killing should be addressed The Laros Murder Allen C. Laros, 1876 The Family Court Murders Debi Marshall, 2014-09-01 4 murders 5 bombings And until 2015 no one charged The definitive story of the Family Court Murders and the book that set off the investigation into and charging of Leonard Warwick who in September 2020 was sentenced to life in prison An initiative of the Whitlam Government the so called helping court opened its doors in January 1976 But despite the high idealism of the court's creators they failed to factor in one universal truth that in a marital tug of war one side would always feel more embittered than the other Despite the brazen enormity of the shootings and bombings in Sydney from 1980 attacks that hit at the very heart of the judicial system and a prime suspect publicly named by the Coroner the police investigation failed to culminate in an arrest and after three decades stalled to a benign review status Following a tip off from a possible witness the Channel 7 Sunday Night program determined to investigate this cold case Award winning true crime writer and investigative journalist Debi Marshall was part of the team who worked this story Decades on the horror of these crimes still haunts everyone involved Witnesses were frightened to speak Family members lived in the dark shadows of grief and fear Widows and children lived without closure To break this uneasy silence Marshall embarked on a terrifying journey into the dark heart of the Family Court murders and the prime suspect What she uncovered will shock and outrage In July 2020 Leonard Warwick was convicted and in September 2020 given a life sentence never to be released The Virtues of Vengeance Peter A. French, 2001 In the course of his study of vengeance as a moral concept French exposes important distinctions between types of moral theories karmic and non karmic and between people who are morally handicapped and those who are morally challenged He examines concepts relevant to vengeance such as honor moral authority and evil and issues such as the rationality of revenge and proportionality in punishment
