Speaking Of Pianists:

Speaking Of Pianists Abram Chasins, 1981 The author collects his reminiscences and reactions stimulated by piano playing and piano music So that his clavichord is well tempered not only by his knowledge and feeling for its music but also by his own association with many performers He reestablishes Josef Hofmann as a great pianist and a greatly loved teacher Rachmaninoff the communicable and sumptuous melodist Schnabel and Godowsky the courtly Paderewski and the ebullient Rubinstein Wanda Landowski and Backhaus Gieseking and Serkin Casadesu and Horowitz are all in this gallery of greats He writes also of interpretation and teaching of the ruthless stranglehold of concert management of its fidelity and its high fatality to the quality of recorded performances and there is a substantial section of commentaries on particular works and composers chiefly classical Informed but informally presented music appreciation which the general listener will enjoy along with the contact with many concert pianists and the anecdotal asides Speaking of Pianists ... Abram Chasins, 1957
