Special Education Law Rothstein, 2001-01. Special Education Law Case Studies David F. Bateman, Jenifer Cline, 2019-01-12. Tremendous changes have occurred over the past decade in the provision of services to students with disabilities. Federal mandates continue to define requirements for a free appropriate public education (FAPE) in the least restrictive environment. Additionally, there has been an increase in the number of lawsuits filed against school districts regarding the provision of educational services for students with disabilities. Case studies are a helpful way to understand these difficult issues. The case studies presented here are actual students eligible for special education and related services. The case studies are represented not to tell districts and parents that this is the only way questions about special education law can be answered, but to provide likely answers along with commentary for analysis. The cases were developed to help new and experienced special education leaders and supervisors survive the pressures of working with students with disabilities while working to provide appropriate services and prevent litigation.

Current Trends and Legal Issues in Special Education David Bateman, Mitchell L. Yell, 2019 Many special education leaders have worked for years in special education as either teachers or related services providers and most states have standards for certification for the role of the special education administrator leader With their broad formal education and years of experience they should be able to meet the challenges of building and program leadership Special education leaders need to be prepared to tackle any problem related to teaching and learning personnel selection and evaluation basic financial management parent and community relations and legal matters related to special education However just like other school leaders many in special education are overwhelmed with the demands of the job while at the same time having to provide services with an increasing diverse population in an underfunded system and growing negative public perception of the education system Special education leaders will experience the burden of many responsibilities in their position such as fulfilling the spirit and letter of the law regarding students with disabilities helping staff keep abreast of best practices and meeting the ever increasing demands from communities and families They can suddenly be thrust into situations in which they must become the final arbiter on matters related to plethora of processes and procedures such as IEP team meetings manifestation determinations requests for mediation or due process hearings and IDEA compliance It is likely that many of these will be new leaders who will need guidance and direction as they move the teams ahead Special education leaders are expected to be experts on all levels and types of special education services available within and outside of the district every disability and all aspects of special education programming from early intervention to post secondary transition Recognizing that few administrators feel adequately prepared for these roles Special Education Leadership will be developed to enable practicing leaders to build and support effective special education programs to include supervising and supporting teachers review programs and implement special education law Law and Special Education, The, Mitchell L.
