General Catalogue of the Books Except Fiction, French, and German, in the Public Library of Detroit, Mich Detroit Public Library, 1899 Luzac's Oriental List and Book Review, 1899 The Arts and Crafts of Literacy Andrea Brigaglia, Mauro Nobili, 2017-09-25 During the last two decades the re discovery of thousands of manuscripts in different regions of sub Saharan Africa has questioned the long standing approach of Africa as a continent only characterized by orality and legitimately assigned to the continent the status of a civilization of written literacy However most of the existing studies mainly aim at serving literary and historical purposes and focus only on the textual dimension of the manuscripts This book advances on the contrary a holistic approach to the study of these manuscripts and gather contributions on the different dimensions of the manuscript i e the materials the technologies the practices and the communities involved in the production commercialization circulation preservation and consumption The originality of this book is found in its methodological approach as well as its comparative geographic focus presenting studies on a continental scale including regions formerly neglected by existing scholarship provides a unique opportunity to expand our still scanty knowledge of the different manuscript cultures that the African continent has developed and that often can still be considered as living traditions
