Speculum Christiani Gustaf Holmstedt, 1930 Speculum christiani... Speculum christiani, 1933 Speculum Christiani Gustaf Helmstedt, 1930 Polluting the Sacred D. E. Thiery, 2009 The influence of Christianity on the history of violence is often exemplified by famous instances of interfaith conflict like The Crusades However as religions develop they usually marginalize violence against fellow believers long before they ever if at all question violence against others Through an investigation of spiritual and legal sources this book details how Christian teachings about charity sin and purity problematized late medieval parishioners use of violence and how parishioners actually tried to reconcile these teachings with cultural norms that often honored violent conduct By illuminating the impact of lessons concerning the sinfulness of violence and piety of self restraint this book provides a fresh perspective on the important role of religion in the civilizing process of European history Speculum Gy de Warewyke Georgiana Lea Morrill, 1898 "Exempla" in Context Fritz Kemmler, 1984 New Medieval Literatures 23 Philip Knox, Laura Ashe, Kellie Robertson, Wendy Scase, 2023-03-28 Annual volume on medieval textual cultures engaging with intellectual and cultural pluralism in the Middle Ages showcasing the best new work in this field New Medieval Literatures is an annual of work on medieval textual cultures aiming to engage with intellectual and cultural pluralism in the Middle Ages and now Its scope is inclusive of work across the theoretical archival philological and historicist methodologies associated with medieval literary studies and embraces the range of European cultures capaciously defined Essays in this volume engage with widely varied themes law and literature manuscript production patronage and aesthetics real and imagined geographies gender and its connections to narrative theory and to psychoanalysis Investigations range from the eleventh to the fifteenth centuries from England to the eastern Mediterranean New arguments are put forward about the dating context and occasion of Geoffrey Chaucer's Boece while the narrative dynamics of Chaucer's Franklin's Tale and Tale of Melibee are examined from new perspectives The topography of the Holy Lands appears both as a set of emotional sites depicted in the Prick of Conscience in its account of the end of the world and as co ordinates in the cultural imaginary of medieval the wine trade Grendel's mother emerges as the invisible and unavowable centre of male heroic culture in Beowulf and the fourteenth century St Erkenwald is brought into contact with the community building project of the medieval death investigation Finally the late medieval Speculum Christiani is revealed to be a work with deep aesthetic investments when read through the framework of how its medieval scribes encountered and shaped that work Studies in Clergy and Ministry in Medieval England David M. Smith, 1991-12 Political Allegory in Late Medieval England Ann W. Astell, 2002-01-01 Ann W Astell here affords a radically new understanding of the rhetorical nature of allegorical poetry in the late Middle Ages She shows that major English writers of that era among them William Langland John Gower Geoffrey Chaucer and the Gawain poet offered in their works of fiction timely commentary on current events and public issues Poems previously regarded as only vaguely political in their subject matter are seen by Astell to be highly detailed and specific in their veiled historical references implied audiences and admonitions Astell begins by describing the Augustinian and Boethian rhetorical principles involved in the invention of allegory She then compares literary and historical treatments of key events in fourteenth and fifteenth century England finding an astonishing match of allusions and code words especially those deriving from puns titles heraldic devices and personal cognizances as well as repeated proverbs prophecies and exempla Among the works she discusses are John Ball s Letters and parts of Piers Plowman which she presents as two examples of allegorical literature associated with the Peasants Revolution of 1381 Gower s allegorical representation of the Merciless Parliament of 1388 in Confessio Amantis and Chaucer s brilliant literary handling of key events in the reign of Richard II In addition Astell argues for a precise dating of Sir Gawain and the Green Knight between 1397 and 1399 and decodes the work as a political allegory De Nederlandsche spectator ,1870 A Descriptive Catalogue of the Manuscripts in the Library of Jesus College, Cambridge Jesus College (University of Cambridge).

 Robbins, John L. Cutler, 2014-07-15 Rossell Hope Robbins collaborated with Carleton Brown in the publishing of the Index of Middle English Verse in 1943 With John L Cutler associate professor of English in the University of Kentucky he has now compiled a supplement to the Index incorporating those texts published since 1943 At the same time the two have completely revised the Index by including in the Supplement texts previously neglected The number of entries has been increased to 6 000 and more than half of the 4 500 original entries have been revised In addition to this basic revision the appendices of the Index have been corrected and enlarged especially the listing and locating of privately held manuscripts Cross references have been inserted abundantly to facilitate easy use of the combined works Additionally reference has been made to related specialized studies The large number of new entries is attributable not only to prolonged manuscript research but also to a broadening of the original criteria for the inclusion of poems Rather than cutting off entries at 1500 which the authors felt impaired the usefulness of the original Index Robbins and Cutler included genres that had not concluded but continued into the sixteenth century as well as poems with uncertain dates they felt would be important for scholars The Supplement overcomes these barriers by including the so called Scottish Chaucerians the late fifteenth and early sixteenth century manuscripts such as the Tudor songbooks verse items of only two lines and tombstone and church bras epitaphs
