Streetwise Seattle:

Women Photographers and Feminist Aesthetics Claire Raymond, 2017-04-21 Women Photographers and Feminist Aesthetics makes the case for a feminist aesthetics in photography by analysing key works of twenty two women photographers including cis and trans woman photographers Claire Raymond provides close readings of key photographs spanning the history of photography from nineteenth century Europe to twenty first century Africa and Asia She offers original interpretations of well known photographers such as Diane Arbus Sally Mann and Carrie Mae Weems analysing their work in relation to gender class and race The book also pays close attention to the way in which indigenous North Americans have been represented through photography and the ways in which contemporary Native American women photographers respond to this history Developing the argument that through aesthetic force emerges the truly political the book moves beyond polarization of the aesthetic and the cultural Instead photographic works are read for their subversive political and cultural force as it emerges through the aesthetics of the image This book is ideal for students of Photography Art History Art and Visual Culture and Gender

A Heart for the Community John Fuder, Noel Castellanos, 2013-08-28 Our nation used to look at violence poverty and gentrification and assign those problems to urban centers Today these issues concern the suburbs too The Christian community is responding to this reality Churches and parachurch ministries are actively working to transform lives and restore communities throughout the city and suburbs In A Heart for the Community New Models for Urban and Suburban Ministry you will be challenged by a collection of voices seeking community renewal These individuals are involved in creative church planting initiatives and they are serving the growing Hispanic and Muslim populations Additional endeavors include serving racially changing communities economic development strategies and more As anyone who has been in ministry for any length of time can attest tackling some of the most challenging issues of our times is no mere academic exercise The voices within these pages write from experience and offer workable vibrant models of ministry that make a difference

Brat Pack America Kevin Smokler, 2016-10-11 From the fictional towns of Hill Valley CA and Shermer IL to the beautiful landscapes of Astoria and Brownsville OR from the iconic suburbs of the San Fernando Valley to the seemingly scary inner cities of Chicago 80s teen movies had one thing in common locations mattered Perhaps moreso than in any other decade the locations of the 80s teen movies were monumentally important In Brat Pack America Kevin Smokler gives virtual tours of your favorite movies while also picking apart why these locations are so important to these movies Including interviews with actors writers and directors of the era and chock full of interesting facts about your favorite 80s movies Brat Pack America is a must for any fan Smokler went to Goonies Day in Astoria OR took a Lost Boys tour of Santa Cruz CA and deeply explored every nook and cranny of the movies we all know and love and it shows
