Strident Whisper:

Science of the Seance Beth A. Robertson, 2016-11-28 In the 1920s and 30s people gathered in darkened rooms to explore the paranormal through seances They were motivated by grief spiritual devotion or a desire to be entertained Beth A Robertson resurrects the story of a small transnational group and their quest for objective knowledge of the supernatural casting new light on how science metaphysics and the senses collided to inform gendered norms in this era Robertson draws back the curtain to reveal a world inhabited by researchers spirits and spiritual mediums Representing themselves as masters of the senses untainted by the effeminized subjectivity of the body psychical researchers in Canada the UK and the US believed that they could use machines and empirical methods to transform the seance into a laboratory of the spirits and a transnational empirical project However mediums and ghostly subjects could and did challenge their claims to scientific expertise and authority

M.O.D.E.L. Mukul Deva, 2007-04-04 M O D E L The Return of the Employee highlights the basic tools one needs to succeed without ignoring the lighter facets of an otherwise tough and strained professional environment It intends to entertain and direct a professional to look beyond what stares them in the face and work towards having a genial synergistic approach to the atmosphere that they have to survive and thrive in Written in a farcical manner M O D E L does not preach any new theory or concept for the author believes that the fundamentals for success and happiness cannot change The simple application of basics is all that is required for most things

The Crack in the Lens Darlene A. Cypser, 2011-03-14 If someone had asked Sherlock Holmes later in the year there is little doubt that he would have said his life began that spring day in 1871 when he met Violet Rushdale upon the moors and ended in the winter some months distant His mother would have disputed the former claim and many both friend and foe would come to deny the latter Yet what happened that year nearly cost him his life and his sanity and strongly influenced the man he was to become It is well known that the toughest steel that makes the sharpest swords must be plunged into the fire then beaten and reshaped So it is as well with the best and wisest of men
