The Law of Achievement Kathleen Gage, Lori Giovannoni, 2005 At 6:19 pm on September 2, 2005, the world stopped for Lori Giovannoni and Kathleen Gage. Troy Roper Jr., Lori's husband and Kathleen's dear friend, was in a severe motorcycle accident. The pursuit of business, joint ventures, and material concerns came to a screaming halt. For 102 days, their lives revolved around the shock, trauma, unit surgery, intensive care, doctors, nurses, and an endless stream of visitors and well-wishers. There was no word or concern about business issues. Priorities were rearranged, and the world had shifted on its axis. When the crisis subsided, it was evident all had changed. Troy's accident reminded all who know him to live in today, cherishing each moment. It was out of this experience that Kathleen and Lori's newest book, The Law of Achievement, was born. The Law of Achievement offers a rare look into what it really means to discover your purpose, possibility, and potential. Kathleen and Lori dare to reveal uncommon and rarely explored philosophies in this unique book. Having been driven by the traditional measurements of success, Kathleen and Lori have discovered the counter-intuitive laws of achievement that had been brewing in their consciousness for years. It was through their shift in perception, the realization that all the awards, recognitions, and accolades held little meaning in the overall picture of life. The Laws of Achievement appeals to all walks of life, expanding the concept of achievement beyond the common self-help and standard business book to a personal journey of growth and success.

Black Woman Redefined Sophia Nelson, 2012-11-20 It's time for a REDEFINITION among black women in America. In its 2011 hardcover release, Black Woman Redefined was a top-selling book and took home a 2011 Best Non-Fiction Book of the Year Award from the African American Literary Awards. Author Sophia A. Nelson won the 2012 Champions of Diversity Award, given each year by diversity business executives in Fortune 100 companies. Black Woman Redefined was inspired in part by what Nelson calls "open season" on accomplished black women from Don Imus's name-calling of black female basketball players in 2007 and a 2009 Yale University study titled "Marriage Eludes High-Achieving Black Women" to the more recent revelation that First Lady Michelle Obama is concerned about being painted as an angry black woman. In Black Woman Redefined, Nelson sets out to change this cultural perception, taking readers on a no-holds-barred journey into the hearts and minds of accomplished black women to reveal truths, tribulations, and insights like never before. This groundbreaking book provides black women of a new generation with essential career and life coaching advice. Based on never-before-done research on college-educated, career-driven black women, Nelson offers her fellow sisters and those who know love and work with them a feel-good volume for personal and professional success that empowers them without tearing others down.
