Writing and Personality John K. DiTiberio,George H. Jensen,2018-06-12

We cannot separate the writer from the writing Nor should we try Both our writing process and our writing products need to carry our unique signature a bit of our personality From Writing and Personality How you write what works for you and what makes sense to you depends on who you are your personality your preferences your style of thinking and feeling If you're extraverted and grounded in your senses your natural writing style will be far different from the person who tends to be introverted and intuitive Not only that how you learn to write will be different as well Here's a book that taps into the natural strengths of your personality and helps you use those strengths in your writing Whether you're a student businessperson or professional writer this book will help you engage your natural writing voice adapt to styles that are less natural overcome writer's block and find the right words for communicating effectively whatever your assignment

The Memoir and the Memoirist Thomas Larson,2007-05-15 The memoir is the most popular and expressive literary form of our time Writers embrace the memoir and readers devour it propelling many memoirs by relative unknowns to the top of the best seller list Writing programs challenge authors to disclose themselves in personal narrative Memoir and personal narrative urge writers to face the intimacies of the self and ask what is true In The Memoir and the Memoirist critic and memoirist Thomas Larson explores the craft and purpose of writing this new form Larson guides the reader from the autobiography and the personal essay to the memoir a genre focused on a particularly emotional relationship in the author's past an intimate story concerned more with who is remembering and why than with what is remembered The Memoir and the Memoirist touches on the nuances of memory of finding and telling the truth and of disclosing one's deepest self It explores the craft and purpose of personal narrative by looking in detail at more than a dozen examples by writers such as Mary Karr Frank McCourt Dave Eggers Elizabeth Wurtzel Mark Doty Nuala O'Faolain Rick Bragg and Joseph Lelyveld to show what they reveal about themselves Larson also opens up his own writing and that of his students to demonstrate the hidden mechanics of the writing process For both the interested reader of memoir and the writer wrestling with the craft The Memoir and the Memoirist provides guidance and insight into
