The Debonairs:

The Debonairs James Robert Parish,Don E. Stanke,1975      Doowop Robert Pruter,1996 The Chicago Tribune s Bill Dahl praised Robert Pruter s Doowop for vividly describing an enchanting time on the local music scene when a handful of teenagers could taste rock n roll stardom with harmonies they cooked up on a street corner Pruter foraged sources from fanzines to the Chicago Defender and conducted extensive interviews in cooking up Doowop which chronicles the careers of such legendary 1950s groups as the Flamingos the Moonglows the Spaniels and the El Dorados along with virtually every other Chicago doowop group that contributed to that era      Dashing to the End Eric Monder,2025-05-15 Born Alfred Reginald John Truscott Jones Welsh American actor Ray Milland 1907 1986 appeared in more than 135 theatrical releases between 1929 and 1985 and on radio television and the stage while also becoming a film director Milland s extensive canon across such a period is remarkable especially considering his lack of formal training his belated start in show business in his late twenties and the fact he only lived to age seventy nine Perhaps best remembered for his Oscar winning performance as the tortured alcoholic in Billy Wilder s The Lost Weekend 1945 or his outstanding collaboration with Alfred Hitchcock in Dial M for Murder 1954 there is much more to Milland s life and career than the few films that elevated him from star to icon Despite his prolific and successful career Dashing to the End The Ray Milland Story is the first comprehensive biography of the star Milland s personal and professional trajectory epitomize quintessential Hollywood lore the British army soldier turned actor who went from unknown struggling bit player to Oscar winning star to aging scandal haunted has been to comeback character actor to present day cult figure Using interviews with Milland s costars and colleagues as well as research from several major archives author Eric Monder brings into sharp relief both the positive and negative aspects of the Hollywood film and television industries and paints a well rounded portrait of this complex man and artist      The Aviation Consumer Used Aircraft Guide Richard B.
