The Developing Nations: what Path to Modernization? Frank Tachau, 1972-01-01 Textbook of International Health: Global Health in a Dynamic World, 2009-04-06 This classic text formerly known as the Basch textbook now completely revised in an updated new edition brings together information that students and professionals working in the wide variety of disciplines concerned with international health will find in no other single source It synthesizes historical cultural environmental economic and political considerations to provide a comprehensive global overview of the many factors that determine the health of individuals and populations The major determinants of health status in all regions of the world are discussed and interventions undertaken at community national and international levels are described The new edition features a renowned new authorship committed to updating and expanding the entire content while retaining the core elements of Basch s excellent text The Developing Nations Frank Tachau,1972-03-01

Chinese Economic Development Yinxing Hong,Ninghua Sun,2021-07-08 The book provides a meticulous analysis of economic development and concomitant problems in China since the late 1970s and advances suggestions on further economic modernisation and transition from both theoretical and practical angles Based on theories from development economics and solid empirical studies the authors two renowned Chinese economists provide a perceptive analysis of the Chinese development model in the post Mao era They shed light on questions that have perplexed many How can China sustain the rapid growth of the past 40 years Is there a unique China path to economic progress They argue compellingly that China s development model has to switch from a manufacturing driven one to a brand new approach centring on scientific and technical innovation and the integration of its existing economic structure into an increasingly complex global economy Such transformation will help overcome the middle income trap while addressing other institutional and economic challenges The book will appeal to students scholars and policymakers interested in the Chinese and global economies as well as transnational studies in the post COVID 19 world General readers willing to obtain a grasp of Chinese economic development from the insider s perspective will also find it useful

Encyclopedia of the Third World: Rwanda to Zimbabwe George Thomas Kurian,1982

China's Road and China's Dream Angang Hu,2018-02-01 This book defines China s road towards modernization with Chinese characteristics by systematically examining a typical Chinese political process the National Congress of the Communist Party of China CPC during which diverse opinions are collected and a unified political consensus is formed The author provides a detailed introduction to the background of and preparations for the 18th National Congress of CPC as well as his personal experience of it as an attending representative In addition the book addresses a key problem namely how China s leadership handover procedure gradually evolved into the current collective handover procedure by analyzing its developmental history The question of how to implement China s leadership handover is particularly meaningful as it reflects the development of China s political system and is also essential to the CPC flourishing and China s long term prosperity The author s personal experiences at the 18th National Congress made it possible to fully investigate the leadership handover procedure between Hu Jintao and Xi Jinping Lastly the book provides a detailed description of one highlight of the 18th CPC National Congress the focus on ecological culture and green development and discusses China s dream and its implications for history and the world

State, Agricultural Policy, and Rural Development in a Developing Country Mondonga M. Mokili,1992

The New Men of Knowledge and the Developing Nations Warren Frederick Ilchman,Alice Stone Ilchman,Philip K. Hastings,1968

Total Cold War Kenneth Alan Osgood,2006 Osgood focuses on major campaigns such as Atoms for Peace People to People and cultural exchange programs

Drawing on recently declassified documents that record U S psychological operations in some three dozen countries he tells how U S propaganda agencies presented everyday life in America to the world its citizens living full happy lives in a classless society where economic bounty was shared by all Osgood further investigates the ways in which superpower disarmament negotiations were used as propaganda maneuvers in the battle for international public opinion He also reexamines the early years of the space race focusing especially on the challenge to American propagandists posed by the Soviet launch of Sputnik

New Directions In Comparative Politics Douglas A. Chalmers,1991-03-17 International Labour Documentation,1981-05 Towards Modernization Sumati Mulay,Gouranga Lal Ray,1973 On urban rural interaction a study of the Kanjhawala Block of villages near Delhi The Blackwell Encyclopedia of Sociology: LE-M George Ritzer,2007 Diverse Paths to Modernity in Southeastern Europe Gerasimo Augustinos,1991 As the nations in Southeastern Europe confront the changes that are sweeping across the continent there is much talk of a new beginning for the countries But just as surely as they face the enormous task of restructuring their future development will certainly be influenced to a large extent by their particular experiences in the past This collection of essays considers the problems and prospects of development from a historical perspective by examining the major Balkan states Yugoslavia Romania Greece and Bulgaria These strategic countries are an excellent example of societies with the potential for significant economic growth but which have developed unevenly because of external and domestic factors This work provides an integrated overview geographically and temporally of each nation s development reaching back to its emergence In his introduction editor Gerasimos Augustinos characterizes development as the process by which economic and technological change leads to the transformation of the institutions and values of a society Each contributor then examines each country and its specific historical determinants identifying the developmental strategies that have been attempted in each state and allowing for the comparison of variations Essay one focuses on Bulgarian modernization discussing the possibilities and limits of political and economic development through secularization The problems of differentiated modernization form the basis of the second essay which compares the seemingly dissimilar states of Bulgaria and Yugoslavia in the first half of the twentieth century Essay three addresses the socialist self management strategy that Yugoslavia adopted in an attempt to promote progress and regime legitimacy The development of Greece through the market and entrepreneurship is the subject of the fourth essay while Romania s rapid shift from agriculture to industrialization serves as the focus of the final essay This comparative study will be an important reference work for courses in contemporary political systems economic development and European history as well as a significant addition to public college and university libraries Program American Political Science Association,1972 Includes both preliminary and final programs Ethnocentrism in Foreign Policy Howard J. Wiarda,1985 The Challenge of Third World Development Howard Handelman,2003 Prentice Hall s Research Navigator helps your students make the most of their research time From finding the right articles and journals to citing sources drafting and writing
