This was the case even before the current humanitarian crises around the world which led millions of people and families to flee from wars, terror, poverty, and exploitation. Minors have been denied human rights such as access to education, food, and health services. They have been kidnapped, sold, manipulated, mutilated, killed, and injured. This has been and continues to be the case in both developed and developing countries, and it does not look as if the situation will improve in the near future. Rather, current geopolitical developments, political and economic uncertainties, and instabilities seem to be increasing the vulnerability of minors, especially in the wars and armed conflicts currently being waged not only in Europe but on almost every continent. How can risks children and youth are exposed to in times of transition be reduced? Which role do state agencies, non-governmental organizations, as well as children's coping strategies play in mitigating the vulnerabilities of minors? This volume addresses risks to which children and young people are exposed especially in times of transition. The focus is on different groups of children in the European wartime and post-war societies of the Second World War, occupation children in Germany, teenage National Socialist collaborators in Norway, and more recent cases such as child soldiers, refugee children, and children of European Islamic State fighters. The contributions come from international scholars and different academic disciplines: educational and social sciences, humanities, law, and international peace and conflict studies, and are based on historical quantitative and/or qualitative analyses. Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts, 1995 ERIC Educational Documents Index, 1966-69: Minor descriptors and author index, 1970 Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09 Soviet Education, 1959 Second Language Instruction/acquisition Abstracts, 1996 New York School Journal, 1895 The CD-ROM Directory 1996 Jim Ayre, Jane Callaghan, Signe Hoffos, 1996 This 15th edition of a yearly report provides a guide to all CD-ROM and multimedia titles published.
