The Fountain Arethuse A Novel Set In The University Town Of Leuven:

The Fountain Arethuse Marian F. Sia, Santiago Sia, 1997 That Elusive Fountain of Wisdom M.F. Sia, S. Sia, 2015-06-18 This tale follows fictitious characters as they journey in search of wisdom and the fulfillment of their objectives. Set mainly in the fascinating university town of Leuven, Belgium, it revolves around the personal, social, political, and academic aspirations of visiting scholars in the town. Richard Gutierrez from the USA needs to get tenure at his university. Jennifer Sydney from England is determined to advance her career. Aisling O Shea and her six-year-old son Philip from Ireland have different expectations of their trip. Piotr Malachowski wants to understand a life rooted in the bitter experiences of the internment camp of Majdanek in Poland. The nationalistic Fr Miguel Fuentes from the Philippines wonders what he can learn from a Western university to deal with the challenges in his country. What starts out as an academic sojourn for these individuals becomes a life-changing experience as their paths cross in Leuven and they learn about each other and themselves and about life itself. This Deep Pierian Spring M.F. Sia, S. Sia, 2016-05-11 Fundamental questions about life arise in various contexts, making us wonder about the real worth of living. However, it is certainly a sign of our times when one is alerted to the fundamental question about the meaning and significance of life by an ominous text message. The main character of this book, Professor Enrique de los Reyes, receives such a warning: the onset of super typhoon Haiyan, the strongest ever to hit landfall, and the impending danger to his friend and his relatives in the Philippines. As he anxiously awaits more news, he recalls and reviews in the context of this tragedy his philosophical wanderings throughout a long academic career in pursuit of the meaning of life. He wonders how these could now be reconciled with the urgent need for him to attend to this particular situation. The response to his query comes from a most unexpected source as he assesses Alexander Pope's advice to drink deeply from the Pierian spring and realises its import for one's conduct in life. This reflective account of a human quest is the last volume in a trilogy which probes into philosophical themes in a narrative way. The first book, Those Distant Shores: A Narrative of Human Restlessness, looks at human restlessness and explores the fundamental theme of human transcendence by following the life stories of three boyhood friends and of another young student as they embark on their respective journeys in life. The second book, That Elusive Fountain of Wisdom: A Tale of the Human Thirst for Knowledge, deals with the fundamental craving of human beings for fulfillment as depicted in the various characters from different countries who pursue their respective academic interests and ambitions. Routledge Revivals: God, Literature and Process Thought \(2002\) Darren Middleton, 2018-02-01 Originally published in 2002, God, Literature and Process Thought looks at the use of God in writing as a part of the creative advance immersed in the processes of reality and affected by events in the world. This edited collection outlines and promotes the novel view that there is much to be gained when those who value the insights of process thought encounter the many and varied writers of literature and literary theory. It also celebrates the notion of process poesis, a fresh way of reflecting theologically and philosophically that takes account of literary forms and promises to transform creatively the very structure of process thought today From Education to Life Santiago Sia,2019-01-03 This book contributes to ongoing discussions on the important role of education and on the challenging tasks facing educators today Drawing on their long vast and varied experience as educators administrators and scholars the authors deal specifically with certain fundamental issues with a view to engaging those involved in education in an examination of what underlies educational theory and practice The book shows that education is not simply about attending school academic institutions or any other establishment of learning or training but rather is a process that looks further than the time spent learning lessons attending lectures doing research acquiring knowledge honing skills or developing competence important and crucial as these activities are to human development Its greatest challenge and purpose come instead from life itself For this reason this book is about education as preparing us to live a more fulfilled life and as a process that lasts a lifetime All those involved in education at all stages and in various capacities will find this book both beneficial and engaging From Question to Quest Santiago Sia,2010-04-16 In facing up to life and its challenges questions inevitably arise Different situations provoke specific questions mostly trivial but frequently fundamental always seeking some kind of answer While the transition from question to quest is a rather natural one for human beings and the need for answers is a serious human demand the quest itself is significant precisely because it is a human task This book offers a number of literary philosophical enquiries into these challenges of life But it is the one set of quests stimulated deepened and widened by literature and philosophy as well as developed in a literary and philosophical way Among the topics covered are the search for meaning in life the quest for wisdom the aim of moral striving the need for community life the importance of relationships the challenge of suffering the desire for deliverance and the longing for immortality

Society in its Challenges Santiago Sia,2014-03-17 Living in society has always presented a variety of challenges to its members These challenges need to be addressed if there is to be an improvement in the quality of life in society However to what extent can philosophical thinking facilitate the task This book pursues and answers this question It offers an analysis of fundamental issues and provides philosophical considerations of the challenges arising from living in society The topics discussed here include philosophy and the social context individual interests and the common good dualistic thinking of and in society relationships and communal life the individual and society ethical thinking and formation images reality and truth the power and limits of human freedom social roles public office and moral society economic crisis and accountability the marketplace academia education contemporary society and faith based education and the meaning and significance of life After reviewing these discussions the concluding chapter then sets out a philosophical vision to facilitate an understanding of and motivation for the creative advance of society God, Literature, and Process Thought Darren J. N. Middleton,2002 This book explores and evaluates evolutionary theism which asserts that God is subject to change as humanity is subject to change charting the way it surfaces as a theme in classic modern and post modern forms of creative writing philosophical theology and cultural theory Probing texts by process thinkers such as Whitehead Bergson Teilhard and Hartshorne as well as the literary art of figures such as Aeschylus Byron Goethe Greene Joyce Kazantzakis Levertov and Shakespeare the twelve scholars in this volume reflect on God and the world on reading and interpretation and on being and becoming The contributors emerge with fresh perspectives which promise to make a substantial contribution to the field of literature and religion today The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1999 Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1999
