Edwards, 2010-06-10 The Korean War has often been regarded as a forgotten war although that is certainly unfair It was if anything a rather crucial war within the ambit of the Cold War started by North Korea in 1950 and although the bulk of the fighting was over by 1954 peace has never been concluded and the two sides still face off over the demilitarized zone On the other side of the zone is South Korea which has since become a very prosperous and democratic country while North Korea has achieved relatively little So that war is certainly not forgotten by the Koreans And given the large number of deaths and casualties it is still remembered by
