Subjectivity And Religious Belief:

Subjectivity and Religious Belief C. Stephen Evans, 2004 Religious Belief James Kellenberger, 2021-09-13 This book addresses the different forms that religious belief can take Two primary forms are discussed propositional or doctrinal belief and belief in God Religious belief in God whose affective content is trust in God it is seen opens for believers a relationship to God defined by trust in God The book addresses the issue of the relation between belief and faith the issue of what Søren Kierkegaard called the subjectivity of faith and the issue of the relation between religious belief and religious experience After the introductory chapter the book continues with a chapter in which features and forms of belief allowed by the general concept of belief are presented Several of these forms and features are related to the features of religious belief examined in succeeding chapters The book's final chapter examines God relationships in the Christian tradition that de-emphasize belief and are not defined by belief Language, Truth, and Religious Belief Nancy Frankenberry, Hans H. Penner, 1999 Why do many people think religion is subjective Or symbolic Or non rational This book brings together eighteen important twentieth century essays on these questions by authors ranging from Ludwig Wittgenstein to Richard Rorty and Clifford Geertz The editors show that such questions are both quite modern and powerfully influential in our Western thinking about religious belief Moreover they lead directly into the three most popular theories that attempt to make sense of religion positivism functionalism and relativism Selecting essays that represent each of these three theoretical positions Frankenberry and Penner trace their incoherence and argue for a new method and theory for understanding religious beliefs Religion, Belief, and Spirituality in Late Life L. Eugene Thomas, 1999 Examines the importance of beliefs in understanding psychologically relevant issues from self identity to recovery from grief The Logic of Subjectivity Louis P. Pojman, 1984

The Evolution of Religion Edward Caird, 1893 The Dublin review, 1872 Pluralism and Particularity in Religious Belief Brad Stetson, 1994-09-30 Challenging commonly held assumptions in the field of religious studies the author argues that religious pluralism as a paradigm of religious belief is deeply flawed This work focuses particularly on the foundations of John Hick's influential articulation of religious pluralism and suggests its consonance with postmodernist criticism The critique of pluralism is followed by a defense of Christian exclusivism and its moral viability as a style of religious belief The comprehensive reference bibliography records the major works in the study of religious pluralism
