War and Peace in Sudan Manşūr Khālid, 2003 Sudan has been at war with itself for the last forty years except for a ten year period of peace from 1972 to 1983 This book traces the root causes of the Sudanese conflict the remnants of slave culture and the rift between North and South exacerbated by a conflict of culture and religion Despite past divisions the author identifies new points of departure in the conflict particularly after the agreement reached by John Garang de Marbos in the South and the leadership of the Northern parties The main tenets of this agreement are recognition of the country's religious and cultural diversity separation between religion and the state recognition of citizenship as the sole determinant of political rights and duties and radical restructuring of the state as a quasi confederal state The author avers that these measures hold the last chance for Sudan to be united

Transforming Displaced Women in Sudan Rogaia Mustafa Abusharaf, 2009-08-01 Over twenty years of civil war in predominantly Christian Southern Sudan has forced countless people from their homes Transforming Displaced Women in Sudan examines the lives of women who have forged a new community in a shantytown on the outskirts of Khartoum the largely Muslim heavily Arabized capital in the north of the country Sudanese born anthropologist Rogaia Mustafa Abusharaf delivers a rich ethnography of this squatter settlement based on personal interviews with displaced women and careful observation of the various strategies they adopt to reconstruct their lives and livelihoods Her findings debunk the myth that these settlements are utterly abject and instead she discovers a
