The Magic Pudding (illustrated) Norman Lindsay,2020-02-26 The Magic Pudding is a children's classic novel written in 1918 by Australian author and illustrator Norman Lindsay. It is a comic fantasy and the story is set in Australia with humans mixing with anthropomorphic animals. It's the story of a magic pudding which no matter how often it is eaten always reforms in order to be eaten again. The pudding is owned by three friends who must defend it against Pudding Thieves who want it for themselves. The book is divided into four slices instead of chapters. There are many short songs interspersed throughout the text varying from stories told in rhyme to descriptions of a character's mood or behaviour and verses of an ongoing sea song. Wanting to see the world, Bunyip Bluegum the koala sets out on his travels taking only a walking stick. At about lunchtime feeling more than slightly peckish, he meets Bill Barnacle the sailor and Sam Sawnoff the penguin who are eating a pudding. The pudding is a magic one which no matter how much one eats it always reforms into a whole pudding again. He is called Albert, has thin arms and legs and is a bad tempered, ill mannered so and so into the bargain. His only pleasure is being eaten and on his insistence Bill and Sam invite Bunyip to join them for lunch. They then set off on the road together Bill explaining to Bunyip how he and Sam were once shipwrecked with a ship's cook on an iceberg where the cook created the pudding which they now own. Later on they encounter the Pudding Thieves a possum and a wombat. These nasty varmints are scum of the earth barely fit to own the air that fills their lungs. Bill and Sam bravely defend their pudding while Bunyip sits on Albert so that he cannot escape while they are not looking. Later that night sitting round the fire Bill and Sam grateful for his contributions of the day invite Bunyip to join them and become a member of the Noble Society of Pudding Owners.
